DISTRICT IS NOW ISOLATED

Railway and Wire Commuless for Present

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 26.— A scene of guerrilla warfare in which dozens of men may have been slain, and wounded by rifle bullets and dynamite, stretched for twelve miles back from the mouth of Paint Creek today.

Two Baldwin detectives were fatally shot last night from ambush while riding on a handcar. One report reached here at noon today that seven of the Baldwin men and three miners had been killed by an attacking force which swooped down on Baldwin's men, operating a machine gun, and exploded a dynamite bomb.

Authorities powerless
The state authorities were powerless, not even being able to get meagre details of the slaughter which they are certain resulted from the numerous pitched battles along the creek.

Governor Glasscock and his subordinate exhausted every means in an effort to get troops to the scene.
The governor telegraphed to Mount Gretna, Pa., where the West Virginia militia is in camp, ordering Major James T. Pratt to hasten to Paint Creek, with an entire battalion. In the meantime Adjutant General C. D. Elliott divided his company of 64 men at Peytonia, where he went following the shooting of a deputy sheriff Tuesday night, and sent a detachment to the mouth of the creek by way of St. Albans and Charleston.

All communication with the Paint Creek district from its mouth for miles back was cut off, except as some courier broke through the brush with a fresh story of killings.

Noted Detective Killed Among the men believed to have been killed when the dynamite was exploded at Mucklow was E. W. Gau-p, noted Baldwin detective. An official report says that Gaujot had been struck down with nine others, when the bomb exploded but that he was not instantly killed. It is said that he begged to be taken to a hospital, but that no mercy was shown.

A continuous rifle fire from the hills on either side of the creek all day and occasional volleys were interposed. All of the women and children have fled.

The valley is impregnable. It is practically out of the question to get into the narrow gully except from its mouth and that way is barred.

Sheriff S. P. Smith of Kanawha county tried to make his way up the valley this morning to investigate the shooting of Springer and Phaup, but had to turn back.

Despite the assurances of the authorities, the uprising at Paint Creek has been expected since shortly after the strike began there, April 20.
The bitterness has increased daily, due to frequent clashes between the armed guards and the striking miners.

In a petition asking the court to enjoin the mine operators along the creek from maintaining armed guards terrible conditions were recited. The court refused to grant a temporary restraining order.

Shot on Hand Car William Springer, a Baldwin detective, and William Phaup, head of the Baldwin detective forces in the coal fields, coming down Paint Creek on a hand car, were fired upon by armed miners. Springer, riddled with bullets, rolled from the car and down an embankment. Phaup was also shot, but was not killed.

Phaup finally reached the Sheltering Arms hospital at Paint Creek Junction, and is now in the operating room.

The armed miners proceeded up the creek, but have cut all wires, and no further tidings can be secured this morning.

General Elliott with a company of militia is at Peytonia, but the wires are down.

Sheriff S. P. Smith may send deputies today to take charge of the situation.

ATTACKS GOVERNMENT
LONDON, July 26.—"German dreadnaughts are less to be feared than British bread-nots," shouted Labor Leader Ben Tillett to a throng of striking dock workers on Tower hill today.

Convicted of Theft Of Menas Amulet

CHICAGO, July 26.—John C.
Hartzell has failed in his efforts to escape conviction for the theft of the amulet which once belonged to King Menas, who reigned thousands of years ago on the banks of the Nile. The amulet was the property of the University of Chicago. Into the trial was injected evidence concerning Noah, Shem, Ham, Japheth and all the lore of Egyptian history—the prosecution said it was to cloud the real issue in the case—but the jury decided that Hartzell had stolen the amulet, notwithstanding all the ancient history. The state's case rested on finger print evidence. Incidentally Attorney John F. Geeting delivered his notion of a college professor during the arguments.

"A professor of science," he said, "is a man who can see a mosquito on the Masonic tower scratch his back with his left hind leg, but cannot see the tower. If a man is crazy and learned he is a scientist; if he is crazy and not learned, he is just crazy. Professors are harmless monomaniacs."

WAUSAU FLOODED BUT WATERLESS

La Crosse Men Attend Convention in Inundated City at Time of Flood

WATER AND LIGHTS CUT OFF

Fire Would Have Destroyed Helpless City Because Reservoir Was Not in Use

"Water, water everywhere, but not a drop to drink," or for washing purposes for that matter. This is the situation in Wausau which was swept by a disastrous flood Tuesday, according to Alderman P. W. Mahoney, who returned from the Municipalities convention in the stricken city last night. Mr. Mahoney adds that if the city had not allowed its big reservoir to fall into disuse it would not be facing such a desperate situation.

"We were awakened early Tuesday morning by the unusual noise on the streets," said Mr. Mahoney today, "but at first we could not make out what was the trouble.
The Penrose measure and it was adopted by the narrow margin of 34 to 32."

This took place in what was known as the committee of the whole. The amended measure then passed into the senate proper.

La Follette Springs Coup Meantime Senator La Follette, who with Senators Clapp and Kenyon had joined the democrats in voting against the Penrose substitute, saw an opportunity to again pass his bill of 1911, which President Taft had vetoed. There was a quick rally of progressive forces and the La Follette bill was introduced as a substitute for the already amended bill.

It became the substitute for the democratic house bill and as such the senate finally passed it 47 to 20.
The progressives who joined with the democrats in adopting the La Follette substitute were Borah, Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Gronna, Kenyon, La Follette, Poindexter and Works.

The amended bill goes to the house of representatives and the resulting tariff situation is exactly that which followed the adoption of a woolen tariff in the special session of 1911.

On the first test vote that came after the La Follette amendment had been laid before the senate the democrats and progressives defeated Senator Lodge's amendment for a tariff commission by a vote of 35 to 31. Republican progressives, who changed from support of the republican bill to the opposition side in aiding to defeat the Lodge amendment were Bristow, Crawford, Gronna, Poindexter and Works.

T. R. SCORES HOUSE
NAVAL ATTITUDE
OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 26.— Theodore Roosevelt today made a bitter attack on the house democrats in connection with the battleship Kentucky. Asked what he thought of the attitude of the democrats on naval matters, the colonel waxed vehement, saying: "If the democrats vote down the battleships, if they are logical they should also vote to abandon the Panama canal.
It is an understandable policy to abandon the Panama canal and this nation would then become the China of the west. But the one unpardon-able policy is to incur responsibility and then to decline to adopt the necessary means to enable us to meet that responsibility."

WILSON ASSAILED BY CONGRESSMAN

Democrat Nominee Declared to be Anti-Labor Candidate by Rodenburg of Illinois

GOES OVER HIS WRITINGS

Speeches and Books of Governor Held Up to Criticism by Republican Solon

WASHINGTON, July 26.—"Woodrow Wilson—anti-Jefferson, anti-foreign, anti-labor, anti-soldier and pro-Chinese candidate for the presidency" —was how the democratic nominee was branded today in the house by Representative William A. Rodenburg (Rep., Ill.) today in a pro-Taft speech. The address was based upon the books, public letters and addresses of the democratic nominee, and was the first of a series of republican campaign speeches against the New Jersey Governor.

Assails Bryan
Besides denouncing Wilson, Rod-enburg violently assailed Bryan and in lauding Clark branded as the "acme of perfidy" Bryan's "betrayal" of the speaker.

Most of Rodenburg's speech included quotations from Wilson's history of American people, which the member said was written ten years ago, before the Princetonian ever thought of the White house.

"Today the mantle of the immortal Jefferson rests upon the narrow, but classic shoulders of the Princeton professor," Rodenburg said.
"Jefferson was taken advantage of,
for if given an opportunity he would certainly have protested vigorously, for here is what Wilson said Jefferson said:

"An aristocrat who deliberately practiced the arts of a politician.
Washington found him a guide who needed watching."

Rodenburg then quoted Wilson's alleged attack upon foreign immigrants in which Wilson said: "This coarse crew came crowding in every year at the eastern ports.

"I resent the charge," the member declared, "made by Professor Wilson that American workmen were driven to make demand upon congress for this legislation because of their fear of superior skill, and intelligence of the Chinese."

Attacks Labor Views Rodenburg quoted from Wilson's baccalaureate sermon at Princeton three years ago on organized labor.
"I do not agree with Professor Wilson," he continued, "that members of trades unions are 'unprofitable servants.' I do not believe the union man is trying to give as little as he may for his wages."

Rodenburg read Wilson's eulogy of President Cleveland for his veto of pension bills, that such legislation was "an unjustifiable use of public money, and a gross use of charity."

"Prof. Wilson may have experienced a change of heart," Rodenburg added, "when he, himself, applied to Andrew Carnegie for a pension, based upon 'mere service' as an educator."

Citing the Wilson-Joline letter, he continued: "This was his honest opinion of Bryan and Bryanism. And yet today he is prepared to don sackcloth and ashes and eat out of the hand of the man whom he denounced as an 'unfit ruler.'"

"A few years ago Wilson denounced the initiative, referendum and destructive of constitutional government, while today he proclaims it as the one panacea."

DARROW MAY TESTIFY
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 26.— Just before today's session of the Darrow bribery trial begun in Judge Hutton's court, it was expected that Clarence Darrow might take the stand in his own defense before nightfall.

SHIP GOES ASHORE
PARIS, July 26.—An unknown ship went ashore off here in a fog today. Its position is critical. Government boats have gone to its rescue.

THAW ADJUDGED TO BE STILL INSANE
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 26.— Harry K. Thaw was held to be still insane by Justice Keogh in his decision handed down this afternoon in the latest habeas corpus case.

Thaw was ordered sent back to Matteawan asylum immediately by Justice Keogh. He had been in the county jail at White Plains since the habeas corpus hearing began in the supreme court almost two months ago.

MULE EATS FINGER
ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 26.—Myrthe Woods, 2-year-old daughter of Walter Woods, a farmer near New Athens, Ill., suffered the loss of the little finger of the right hand today when a mule she was feeding a handful of hay nipped off the digit with its teeth. The finger was not found, and it is supposed the animal swallowed it with the hay.

Judge Makes Schedule Of Mashers' Fines

CHICAGO, July 26.—For a kiss, $100. For pinching girl's arm, $50. For wink, $50. For each additional wink, $25. For covert glance, $10. For ditto glance accompanied by a "Good afternoon," $50.

With a schedule of almost prohibitive prices, Judge Scully has started a real war on mashers in South Chicago. There doubtless are other methods of flirting that are not in the schedule now, the judge explained, but they will be added as cases come to his notice.

The schedule was prepared by Judge Scully after he heard the evidence in the case of Michael Relinski, who, it was shown, gently closed his thumb and forefinger upon the left arm of Miss Theresa Chemma.

To Probe Drunkenness MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 26.— A report which was entirely unofficial and could not be verified persisted here today that the war department had decided to probe the charges of incompetency of officers commanding in the big military maneuvers at Camp Douglas and McCoy, on the Wisconsin military reservation. The charges were that certain of the army and militia executives have countenanced rioting, drunkenness and debauchery among a part of the 8,000 soldiers of the regular army, Wisconsin and Illinois national guard taking part in the war game.

Officers commanding the "Red" army were not named in the charges made public today. It was stated the "reds" were not present when the orgies took place at Douglas, a small town in which the soldiers are alleged to have made the town hideous with their yells, insulted women and made the opening of the campaign a "mockery."

Governor McGovern of Wisconsin, here this afternoon, stated he would take no official action in the matter until he was assured definitely that such charges were true. The executive expressed surprise that such charges were made and declared that from his observance of the state's national guard in encampments and maneuvers he had witnessed the state guard merited nothing but praise.

CHICAGO, July 26.—The report that an investigation of the alleged misconduct of soldiers at Camp Douglas and McCoy in Wisconsin, was to be made by army officers was denied at the office of Gen. Potts, commandant at Fort Sheridan, and at the office of the adjutant general of the department of the lakes in this city. It was stated that the matter would have to be cared for by the officers on the field unless it was of such a serious nature that a court martial could not care for it.

and the Reds as the warring parties are termed, the greatest military maneuvers ever attempted west of the Atlantic states is now in full swing.
The Reds having theoretically crossed the Mississippi near La Crosse by rapid marches reached a point between Sparta and Camp Douglas, where they were located by scouts and reconnoitering patrols sent out by the Blues. Sustaining severe losses in "killed and wounded" on each side, the rival armies are proceeding cautiously and a pitched battle is expected in a day or two somewhere around Tomah. The fight from then on will drift toward Camp McCoy at Sparta, where the last scenes will be staged.

Advance cavalry of both armies met each other and the Blues captured a number of prisoners, railroads were destroyed, bridges blown up and it with the hay.

WALDO DENIES HIS INFERIOR'S STORY

Police Commissioner of New York Implicated as Controller of Gambling in Metropolis

COSTIGAN REPUDIATES TALE

Declares He Did Not Entangle Waldo in His Story to the Grand Jury

NEW YORK, July 26.—Police Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo arrived at headquarters considerably earlier than usual today, plainly agitated at the statements in the newspapers, emanating from the district attorney's office, that Lieutenant Dan Costigan had told the grand jury that the commissioner was in charge of gambling regulations in New York; that the town was never so wide open as now, and that no gambling house could run a day without police graft.

But the commissioner did not get down earlier than did Lieutenant Costigan and the two went into a hurried conference after which Waldo asserted that Costigan flatly denied telling the grand jury anything like what was in the published accounts.

Hunt Last of Murderers
The police and representative of the district attorney's office assigned to the Rosenthal murder today bent all their efforts to seeking Sam Schepps, who since the arrest of Frank Cirofici, "Dago Frank," otherwise known as Frank Palmer, is the only man suspected of the murder still at liberty. Schepps was positively connected with the shooting by the confession of William Shapiro, chauffeur, and part owner of the "murder car," and District Attorney Whitman said he believed the apprehension of Schapps might clear up the case.

"Dago Frank," for whom detectives were scouring the Italian colony of Paterson, N. J., was arrested in a Harlem apartment last night on a warrant charging him with being an accessory to the Rosenthal murder.

But though the solution of the murder itself progressed far within the last twenty-four hours, development along that line was secondary in interest to the testimony of Police Lieutenant Dan Costigan, in charge of a gambling squad, who told the grand jury flatly that no gambling house could be open for more than a day or two without heavy graft being paid to the police.

He said that the responsibility of keeping the town closed was all with the commissioner, and then added that in all his experience as a policeman, New York had never been so wide open as now.

The lieutenant told also how he had planned a raid on Herman Ros-enthal's gambling house for the night of April 17, and was frustrated by Lieutenant Charles Becker, who raided the place with his own squad before Costigan could get there.

Immediately after his hurried conference with Waldo, Lieutenant Costigan made the following affidavit, which the commissioner handed to the newspapermen:

"The statements in the newspapers alleging to give my testimony before the grand jury are false and malicious in the extreme. The statement that I reported having evidence of gambling houses and was not directed by Commissioner Waldo to close them is false. All gambling houses against which I obtained evidence were raided."

Waldo announced that he would issue a statement of his own later.
District Attorney Whitman today announced that he would request Police Commissioner Waldo to appear as a witness before the grand jury when that body reconvenes on Monday. The district attorney said that members of the grand jury had requested that they be allowed to hear Waldo's testimony after listening to the evidence of Lieutenant Costigan.

Commissioner Waldo today receiving from Mayor Gaynor a letter giving him positive orders not to suspend Lieutenant Charles Becker.

WATER COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER PIPES

The second step in the installation of the new water plant will be taken at a meeting of the special water committee of the common council at the city hall tonight, when the plans and specifications for the new pipe lines, drawn by City Engineer George Bradish, will be considered.
The plans which will be submitted to the committee include all the pipe lines which will be laid in the new distribution system from the pumping station and the reservoir on the bluff.

The council recently adopted as the site for the proposed pumping station, a piece of land adjacent to and north of Myrick park. The laying of the pipe lines will be the next step in the building of the new water works. The findings of the committee will be submitted to the council at its next regular meeting so that the work can be begun immediately.

Says Helen Gould Ought To Marry

GRAND JUNCTION, Col., July 26.—That Helen Gould is the wonderful bachelor girl in the United States, but that she could be of more use to humanity if she were married, is the declaration of Rev. Elmer V. Huffer of the First Christian church of this city.

Miss Gould has taken issue with the Rev. Huffer in his declaration that bachelors and old maids should be isolated on some desolate island, because they are a menace and detriment to society.

"Miss Gould is a noble woman," declared Huffer today, "but her nobleness would be greatly enhanced if she were married."

NEW YORK, July 26.—The old maids received sudden support in the Helen Gould-Rev.
Huffer controversy today from the Housewives' league.

That preacher ought to be investigated, said Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the Housewives' league. "Some of our very best members are old maids, and some of the most valuable work is being done by them. I admire Miss Gould for taking issue with that silly sermon."

SAYS INDIAN WAS NEAR 200 MARK

American Mining Man Sub-stantiates Story of Old Aztec's Extreme Age

MARRIED AFTER HE WAS 150

Reported that Man Born in 1727 Had Children After He Passed Third
Half Century

AUSTIN, Texas, July 26.—That Jose Calvario, who died recently at Tuxpan, Mexico, lacking only fifteen years of the 200 mark, was married for the last time when he was past 150 years of age, was the statement in a letter received here today from Frank L. Watson, an American mining man of Colima, Mexico.

Watson's letter further substantiates the report of Calvario's extreme age, the American saying that he was at Tuxpan the day the Mexican died. Watson said he had often seen the aged man doing odd jobs about town for a living. "Calvario was an Aztec Indian," Watson wrote. "He ate whatever he liked, but his poverty prevented him from being sumptuous. He was a moderate drinker of native liquors for sixteen years, according to his own statement, and his memory did not go back to the time when he began smoking the Mexican handmade cigar."

"No one knows how many times he was married, but it is commonly reported that he took his last wife when he was past the age of 150 years and that he had several children by her. He left thousands of descendants."

Watson confirms the statement that the state officials investigated Calvario's claim of extreme age and found that the church records showed he was born in 1727.

LONDON, July 26.—An open verdict was returned by the coroner today on Mrs. Gladys P. Carr, wife of Henry Clay Carr, of Washington, D.

of medicine and swallowed carbolic acid instead. The verdict means the jurors were uncertain whether the case was accidental or suicide. Carr said his wife was suffering from a nervous ailment.

DEFEAT RECIPROCITY PLAN

McCumber's Amendment to La Follette's Bill Is Left Out of Measure as Put Through

WASHINGTON, July 26.—President Taft is likely to be confronted with a dilemma exactly similar to that he faced last summer in regard to the tariff revision, as a result of the situation created today by passage in the senate of the La Follette wool tariff bill yesterday afternoon.

An unexpected resumption of the progressive republican democratic coalition forced through the measure, which is identical to the one Taft vetoed last year. The La Follette bill takes the middle ground between the present Payne-Aldrich law and the drastic cuts in duties specified in the house bill.

30 Per Cent on Raw Wool As passed by the senate the measures fixes a duty of 30 per cent on raw wool and an average of 55 per cent on manufactures; the house bill made the raw wool duty 20 per cent and the manufactures about 30 per cent.

It was the belief of representatives today that the house would either agree to the senate wool bill or make slight modifications in conference, but at any rate finally reach a compromise, which would "put President Taft in the hole" by forcing him to take action on a tariff revision bill. Since La Follette frankly admits that his measure is not based on the tariff board's wool report, it was conceded today that if the bill does reach the White house it will immediately receive a presidential veto in line with Taft's determination that the recommendations of the tariff board must be followed in revision of the Payne-Aldrich law.

Penrose Has Compromise
The vote on the La Follette bill came after a protracted debate. Previously the senate had tentatively agreed to a compromise measure introduced by Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania and drafted by Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island after the democrats had hilariously joked over the unusual spectacle of Penrose posing as a tariff reformer. Then La Follette suddenly introduced his bill and the measure went through in a rush, 47 to 20.

rangement has been made by the

TOBACCO CO. PLANS NEW WAREHOUSE

SPARTA, Wis., July 26.—The contract for the erection of the new building planned for the Jefferson Leaf Tobacco company has been given to the Sparta Sash and Door company, and work will be commenced as soon as possible. The structure will cover 40x130 feet on the ground, and will be built in every little detail for the betterment of the tobacco business. It will have a three foot concrete foundation, the superstructure of frame foundation, sheeted inside and outside, lined with galvanized iron, 16 feet in height, with concrete floor in the basement. The first story room will be fully lighted and fitted out for sorting work. A large place for storage purposes as well as the company's offices, will occupy the second floor.

Last Friday a ball game which proved to be one of the most interesting of the season, was played at the fair grounds, and was watched by a crowd whose interest could not have been more intense. The two sides were represented by the professional players among the business men on the east side of Water street, and the west side, represented by a team of "dark horses," including Dr. G. H. Barlow, T. P. Abel, R. B. Graves, S. D. Beebe and several younger players, this side carrying off the big end of the game. The city ball team was presented with the cash, about $20, taken in at the gates. Many think the credit and great success of the game due to the fact that it was not played on Sunday, and there seemed to be more of a spirit of freedom and enthusiasm felt by all.

FRECKLE-FACE

New Remedy that Removes Freckles or Costs Nothing

Here's a chance Miss Freckle-Face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion, the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength, from O. T. Erhart and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask O. T. Erhart for the double strength ointment, as this is the only prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

TO ISSUE BOOK ON JOURNALISM

Wisconsin University Professor Tells How to Handle Newspaper Work

MADISON, Wis., July 26.—A textbook on journalism, which is also intended to serve as a handbook for newspaper reporters and correspondents is among the new books to be published this fall by University of Wisconsin men. The new book is called "Newspaper Reporting and Correspondence" and was written by Grant M. Hyde, instructor in the university course in journalism. It is now in the press of Appleton & Company, of New York.

Instead of treating the newspaper business as a subject for research to be talked about from a distance, the author has made this book a practical treatise of aid to young newspaper "cubs" who want to learn how to write their stories. A collection of "don'ts and dos" and workday instructions for the newspaper beginner makes up the larger share of the book.

There are chapters on news gathering, news values, the writing of simple and involved news stories, and also stories with features. All the common kinds of news stories are discussed with the reasons behind them and examples taken from well-known papers. Speech reports, interviews, court reports, rewrite and follow-up stories, are also discussed, as well as social items and sporting stories of different kinds, obituaries, human interest stories and special feature stories. A chapter is devoted to theatrical reporting. To make the book more practical as a textbook, the author has added a style book, a list of suggestions for study, and a group of badly written news stories to be corrected in class.

MEDICAL VALUE OF SPICES

They Arouse the Appetite and Promote the Secretion of the Gastric Juice.

The spices are a very interesting group of substances; they are the foundation of a considerable industry, they have their medical uses and finally are of special importance in dietetics.

Their value resides in their richness in aromatic substances and essential oils; strictly speaking, they are not foods, but often enough they are essential elements in the diet. Spices have been the subject of classic research, as, for example, in the clove and important investigation which Pawlow undertook as to the psychic influences of food and as to the value of zest in nutrition.

Spices were shown to arouse appetite and to promote the secretion of the gastric juice, and the role they play therefore in dietetics is a very important one. The medicinal action of some of them is further of value. Allspice, for example, is used as an aromatic and has been successfully administered for flatulency or for overcoming griping due to purgatives, and occasionally it is reported that the oil gives relief in rheumatism and neuralgia.

The medical uses of cinnamon are well known. Cardamoms are used in the form of a tincture as aromatic and stomachic and they are also employed as a flavoring agent in curry powder, cakes and liqueurs. The applications of capsicum and the peppers generally are well known. Cloves are aromatic, carminative and stimulant and have been used in dyspepsia, gastric irritation and in cases of vomiting in pregnancy.

Oil of cloves is also a popular remedy for toothache. It has also its uses in microscopy as a preservative and for clearing sections. The uses of nutmeg are wide, vanilla has an enormous application as a flavoring patronage on account of its bright yellow color and pleasant musky flavor.—Lancet.

SKIFF CAPSIZES; THREE LIVES LOST

EXPOSITION PARK, Pa., July 26.—Three lives were lost and one man had a miraculous escape from drowning on Conneaut lake early today, when a rowboat containing two women and two men capsized.

A WORD TO PARENTS

Look After Your Child's Health During the Years of Most Rapid Growth.

School children who are nervous, who cannot sit quietly on a chair, who are always twitching of the muscles of the face, need Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once.

Growing girls who become pale and thin, who have fickle appetites; who are out of breath after climbing the stairs, and who have palpitation of the heart after the least exertion, need them also.

Parents of such children should not delay the treatment. Nervous children do not develop properly. A sickly girlhood means a sickly womanhood and lack of blood during the years of most rapid growth means flat-chested, listless, ambitious men and women later on.

Pure, rich, red blood is what is needed. Strength for the nerves follows naturally. The time to correct the need of this is now, before any more harm is done.

Miss Carrie E. Hathaway, of North Houghton street, North Adams, Mass., was cured of anemia by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after her case was pronounced hopeless by her doctor. The statement of her cure is told by her mother, Mrs. A. A. Hathaway.

"My daughter, Carrie, was confined to her bed for two years suffering from anemia. She seemed to have no blood and was as pale as a ghost. She was thin and did not weigh more than 100 pounds, had no strength or ambition and could not sit up. Her appetite was poor and she had difficulty in breathing. No one expected her to get well and our minister, before going on his vacation, came to bid her goodbye as he did not think she would live until his return. We spent hundreds of dollars but the doctor seemed to be puzzled and could not help her. She had been sick for over two years before I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. The pills gave her quick relief and cured her after a fair trial. She has had no serious sickness since and weighs 170 pounds. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful remedy and I cannot say enough in praise of them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

LUTHERAN SCHOOL TO BE CONTINUED

MADISON, Wis., July 26.—At a meeting of the stockholders of Albion academy of Albion, this county, it was unanimously decided to continue the school as a Lutheran institution. A yearly deficit had threatened its existence. It is now proposed to secure for it the united patronage of the three branches of the Lutheran church. For several years it has been supported by the Norwegian synod, and it is planned to enlist the United Lutheran and the Hauge synod. By the resolution adopted, the pastors of the various congregations will recommend to their respective parishioners that they patronize Albion academy when sending their children away to school.

BLANKS FRIGHTEN CENSUS CLERKS

MADISON, Wis., July 27.—As a result of the numerous changes in the school census blank as approved by the state board of public affairs so much information is required that several school clerks have sent notification to the state superintendent that they will resign. The new blank calls for complete information of school attendance, with detailed data on all of the school work of the district. Many of the clerks claim it would require too much attention. In many cases the office of school clerk is an honorary position.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE ANDREW-MACVEAGH ROW

It is being predicted rather freely that the resignation of Dr. A. Platt Andrew, assistant secretary of the treasury, may develop into another Pinchot-Ballinger row. It is very unlikely. Pinchot had more than personal grievances against his chief.
He believed—and the country has come to agree with him—that the public interests were menaced, and to save them he sacrificed himself by breaking through the routine of traditional discipline with a complaint. Andrew's chief objection to Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh is personal. Mr. MacVeagh, he says, has "idiosyncrasies, an astounding capacity for procrastination, and incapacity for decision" and is subject to "peculiar moods of suspicion and aversion." This may make him an unpleasant chief, but it is hardly enough to cause an administrative scandal.

Mr. MacVeagh is an old man who had had no previous experience with public affairs before entering the cabinet. He was educated for the law, practiced a while in New York, then left the bar because of ill health and entered the wholesale grocery business in Chicago. He formerly was a democrat and aspired to the United States senate in 1894, but was turned down by the Illinois legislature. He broke from the democracy on the free silver issue in 1896 and has since been a republican. He was comparatively obscure when called into the president's official family as treasurer.

Dr. Andrew, on the other hand, is young, aggressive and, like many other brilliant men, inclined to having his own way. He is a Princeton graduate, studied at the universities of Halle, Berlin, Paris and Harvard, and has made a name for himself as a writer on financial topics. He has been instructor and assistant professor of economics at Harvard university and was director of the mint before becoming Mr. MacVeagh's assistant. His talents are partly responsible for his temperamental inability to take orders from an official superior. When he differed with Mr. MacVeagh on the Aldrich currency plan the way for a more serious break was prepared. He has been secretary of the Aldrich monetary commission and become so convinced of the expediency of a central bank that he defied orders and journeyed to the Chicago convention, where he tried to induce the platform committee to insert a plank committing the party to his scheme. Indeed the suspicion is current, although probably unjust, that Wall street inspired his outbreak.

It is unfortunate when a man becomes so intellectually imperious that he cannot get along with those placed over him; it is unfortunate both for him and for those who are to direct his efforts. Dr. Andrew's row simply is a case of an extremely bright and efficient young man "flying off the handle." His bitter letter of resignation will not cause a cabinet crisis. The chairman of the congressional committee to which the resolution for an inquiry was referred very properly holds that he should make his charges more specific.

WILL THE NEW PARTY SUCCEED?

Now that Theodore Roosevelt, for the first time in his meteoric career, has been defeated, there are millions who are wondering what the future has in store for the man, who, when on the way to the Chicago convention, likened himself to a bull moose.
He doubtless believed that he had but to announce his candidacy to silence all opposition.
From the outset there arose in his party leaders who determined to bring about his downfall. They succeeded. Whether he can rise again to mastery of his party or create a new party worthy of the name the immediate future will decide.

It is no easy task to establish a new order of things. The birth of the democratic party was contemporary with the birth of the constitution. The republican party has reached nearly three-score years. Affection and prejudice make voters rally around the standard of each.
To successfully launch a new party requires dominating issues and large adhesions from both old parties.
Moreover state and county organizations must be built up in every commonwealth and in addition there must be an organization in every township. This costs money.

It is said that Senator Hanna raised $10,000,000 to elect McKinley in 1896, more than half that sum in 1900, and that the Roosevelt campaign fund in 1904 totaled $3,000,- 000.

The statement is made and not denied that the Roosevelt campaign which ended so disastrously in Chicago recently cost $1,000,000. Taft's friends spent quite as much. But Taft can assess 100,000 office-holders and he has in addition a brother who is several times a millionaire.

If Roosevelt becomes a bona-fide candidate for the presidency—and the outlook is that he will—he must erect party organizations in states and localities within four months.
The undertaking is herculean and one that would stagger the ordinary man. But Roosevelt at this particular time will attempt anything.
He has everything to gain and nothing to lose.

How can he finance his campaign, unless the same Wall street interests come to his aid that backed him in his campaign for delegates? He has no office-holders to assess. Leading a forlorn hope he can expect aid from earnest, sincere men only, and there are not many such in politics; nor does his career invite the confidence of the studios among the rank and file.

Men who contribute to a campaign fund expect something in return and they can see no assurance of recipi-rocation in a "rump" candidate.

It must be admitted that the average citizen no longer has strong party attachments. He has reached the point where he cares more for men than he does for party. He is determined to disassociate politics from the government and will sanction the man who gives the best assurance of being able to bring this about.

Looking at the new party idea from every angle it does not seem that Roosevelt whose personality is offered in lieu of a definite platform, can succeed. Even for a bona fide new party, success in 1912 is not within the range of possibilities.

A Chicago professor says the garden of Eden was a state of mind and not a place. Don't blame the Chicago professors. They have got to get into the newspapers to keep their jobs.

The Baltimore convention certainly had good impulses. Some of the delegates were so impressed with the Lord's prayer that they applauded it.

King George of Greece promises to resign next year. But then, as Senator Lorimer would point out, "next year" is always in the future.

Colonel Roosevelt, however, would hardly dare play his old friend Will a game of golf, the winner to take the presidency.

Mexico has so many revolutions that it is beginning to resemble a merry-go-round.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

The Exception
Bill Jones was a chap of the strenuous sort;
At golf and at tennis, they thought him a sport;
At the pole vault and run He could beat every one; Throw the hammer and shot In a way not forgot; They tried to defeat him, but nobody could.
(At home, 'twas his mother who cut all the wood.)

Now, Genevieve Smith was a sociable girl—
A leader, in fact, of society's whirl; At dances and teas
She was always at ease;
At bridge, was a winner;
A belle at a dinner;
As the toast of the town, still her memory clings.
(But her ma washed the dishes and 'died up' the 'things'.)

Now, Genevieve Smith met Bill Jones, and they wed.
"We knew it would happen," the wise gossips said.
Now, they haven't a home,
No, not even a flat;
They live in a hotel,
And a swell one at that.
And Bill still plays golf, and Jen leads the quadrilles.
(And father and mother foot all of the bills.)

Which shows that sometimes, Though it's not often so,
The rolling stone gathers Not moss—but the dough.
—Free Press.

Ethel's Climax Little Ethel had been brought up with a firm hand and was always taught to report misdeeds promptly.
One afternoon she came sobbing penitently to her mother.
"Mother, I—I broke a brick in the fireplace."
"Well, it might be worse. But how on earth did you do it, Ethel?"
"I pounded it with your watch."
—Harper's Bazar.

No Boss for Him
"Yes," said the determined-looking woman: "I might manage to hand you a bite to eat if you'll saw and chop a good pile of stove-wood and bring in a few buckets of water and chop the weeds out of the garden and fix up the fence."
"Lady," replied Meandering Mike, "I'm only a hungry wayfarer. I ain't yer husband."—Washington Star.

The Heirloom
A Pittsburg drummer in a small town dropped into a place to get a bite to eat. The place looked familiar but he didn't know the proprietor.
"Been running this place long?" inquired the drummer.
"No; I just inherited it from my father."
"Ah, yes. I knew him. I recognize this old cheese sandwich on the counter."

True to His Trust
"Father," asked the beautiful girl, "did you bring home that material for my new skirt?"
"Yes."
"Where is it?"
"Let me see? What now. Don't be impatient! I didn't forget it.
I'm sure I've got it in one of my pockets, somewhere."

The Moon's Offspring Looking out of the window one evening, little Mary saw the bright, full moon in the eastern sky, and, apparently, only a few inches from it, the beautiful Jupiter, shining almost as brightly as the moon itself.
Marie gazed intently at the spectacle for a moment, and then turning to her mother, exclaimed:
"Oh, mother look! The moon has laid an egg!"

'Twas a Pretty Thing
The young man produced a small, square box from his pocket.
"I have a present for you," he began. "I don't know whether it will fit your finger or not, but—"
"Oh, George!" she broke in. "this is so sudden! Why, I never dreamed—"
But just then George produced the gift—a silver thimble—and it got suddenly cooler in the room.—Ladies Home Journal.

ATTACHES OCCUPIED COFFIN VIENNA, July 26.—The Austrian government must have its dues even if it has to attach the coffin in which a man takes his last sleep. An undertaker in a little town near Prague failed to pay $2 taxes last week. The tax collector sent an official to attach anything that he could find.
He found but one coffin, which the undertaker said was valued at $14, and without looking into it pasted the government seal on the lid. In the coffin was a corpse.

MUST LEARN AT HOME
BERLIN, July 26.—The Prussian minister of education has issued an order against German parents sending their children to school in foreign countries. It is pointed out that it is unpatriotic.

Museum of Daily Facts and Freaks

To Shield Choir's Ankles DES MOINES, Iowa, July 26.—A 20 inch curtain will be hung around the Forest Avenue Baptist choir loft because the young women singers wear those tight hobbie skirts and the men in the congregation stare so vulgarily.

Make Believe Rescue Real CHICAGO.—A make-believe rescue for a moving picture film became a realistic scene when the young woman star became entangled under an overturned canoe and the pretending hero rescued her.

Soldiers Don't Get Pay FORT SHERIDAN, Ill.—Soldiers on duty here are feeling the effects of an incipient monetary panic. The appropriation from which the troops are paid is exhausted and the "ghost" has not walked since June 3rd.

Marriage Not Weight Event CHICAGO.—"Marriage is no hammer throwing contest," said Judge Gemmill to Mr. and Mrs. William Gangler, who had hurled slippers, bread box, frying pan, brick, hatchet and rolling pin at one another.

Feed Child on Whiskey SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—Mrs. Jessie Fox said her baby weighed three pounds at birth and now at nineteen months of age he weighs 77 pounds.
The child drank nothing but whiskey toddies until he got so fat he had to quit.

Hallstones Kill Little Girl SHERIDAN, Wyo.—It is reported here that the five year old daughter of F. M. Walsh, a ranch owner, was caught out in a hailstorm and so badly bruised by hailstones that she died.

Snake's Appetite Good NEW YORK.—Sleepy Billy, the aquarium's pet water moccasin, broke a ten months' fast by devouring twice its own length in killed fish.

Boy Rescues Heavy Man
NEW YORK.—James Boyle, 14, rescued a 180 pound man from drowning. It took two doctors 45 minutes to revive John Fassell, the rescued man.

Nearly Strangled by Bee ITHACA, N. Y.—Aubrey Person-ious of Brocton, seven miles from here, had a narrow escape from death by suffocation, when a bee flew into his mouth and lodged in his windpipe.

Wife Stops Marriage
WASHINGTON.—The Bryan-Mudd nuptials were called off today when Harris A. Mudd of Virginia, after getting the license, discovered that his former wife, thought to be dead, is alive in Chicago.

She Was a Duster
Mrs. Sutton advertised for a woman to do general housework, and in answer a colored girl called, announcing that she had come for the position.
"Are you a good cook?" asked Mrs. Sutton.
"No, indeed, I don't cook," was the reply.

"Are you a good laundress?"
"I wouldn't do washin' and iron-in; it's too hard on the hands."
"Can you sweep?" asked Mrs.
Sutton.
"No," was the positive answer. "I'm not strong enough."

"Well," said the lady of the house, quite exasperated, "may I ask what you can do?"
"I dusts," came the placid reply.
—Everybody's.

'Twas a Pretty Thing
The young man produced a small,
square box from his pocket.
"I have a present for you," he be-
gan. "I don't know whether it will fit your finger or not, but—"
"Oh, George!" she broke in. "this is so sudden! Why, I never dreamed—"
But just then George produced the
gift—a silver thimble—and it got

VIENNA, July 26.—The Austrian
government must have its dues even
a man takes his last sleep. An undertaker in a little town near Prague failed to pay $2 taxes last week. The
tax collector sent an official to attach anything that he could find.
He found but one coffin, which the
undertaker said was valued at $14,
and without looking into it pasted
the government seal on the lid. In
the coffin was a corpse.

The MAN in the BROWN DERBY
by WELLS HASTINGS Author of
The Professor's Mystery Copyright, 1911, by Bobbs-Merrill Co.

"No one must know about it, no one," he said.
"Do you suppose," I asked, "that if I could find him, Ephraim Bond could or would help me?"
The old gentleman's hand, went to trembling lips.
"I'm not sure," he said, "but I do not think so. If you take my advice, you'll keep away from him." He got up and putting his hand on my shoulder, leaned close to my ear. "I have sometimes thought," he whispered, "that that man was the devil incarnate."

I stared at him with my first doubts as to his sanity strongly re-awakened.
"Now," Mr. Ogilby said more quietly, "what has been your own experience of him? Should you say he was a man to be trusted or a man to be treated carelessly? You may have found some measure of happiness through him, but do you think he did what he did for either your happiness or that of his niece?"

"No," I said, "you are quite right; he is the devil." Mr. Ogilby's hand clutched my sleeve. "Youth and strength," he said, "should be afraid of nothing, even the devil. I'm glad that I have found you, Mr. Ellsworth, very glad indeed. Between us, perhaps, we can put the devil in chains. I think you are almost stronger than even Doctor Morriston."

"I wish that were all that counted," I answered; "physical strength isn't of much use nowadays. Modern machinery and modern laws have put sheer muscle out of the running."

Delight was coming back again into the old face.
"Do not be too sure of that," said Mr. Ogilby; "do not be too sure. Machinery and laws, after all, are superfluous. As I have told you, adventure lies just under the surface of life. You may turn any corner to find all civilization swept away for you, to find yourself suddenly in the midst of such a situation that modernity will drop from you like a garment, law and custom be stripped away, and yourself, the naked man, with only man's primal and eternal weapons to help you; your heart, your brain, your bodily strength.
Even a king may find a sudden dagger at his heart, may have to struggle and sweat, man to man, with an assassin, and, by the strength which you make too little of, decide the very pages of history itself."

There was a wildfire of enthusiasm about this little old gentleman, which burned away doubt and discouragement like a flame. I found myself forgetting that I was very tired, that I was baffled and once defeated; like the great royal poet, I felt my strength renewed and the joy of battle stirring in my heart.

"I wish I could take you with me, Mr. Ogilby," I said; "I find you a healthy stimulant." Mr. Ogilby sighed, "I wish so too, but that is impossible. I can not do much but look down from my window at life and occasionally shout encouragement. May I ask what it is that you propose to do first?"

"Well," I replied, "first I shall go back to my hotel to see if, by any chance, there is a letter from Nancy, and then perhaps the best thing to do would be to go to some good private detective bureau. I do not know why that did not occur to me in the first place, but detective, in some way, meant to me police, and police generally mean publicity.
I have been very anxious, if possible, to keep this matter private."
"Quite right," said Mr. Ogilby.
"But naturally a private detective is an entirely different thing, and now with my pocket full of money I can afford one."

"Well," said Mr. Ogilby, "you must let me hear from you every day. No, do not make a note of my address. It will be easy enough for you to remember it, and things committed to paper so often come into other hands."

"I know that well enough," I said ruefully.
"Exactly, exactly. It would even be better, Mr. Ellsworth, if you left the envelope blank, and only addressed it the moment before slipping your letter into the box."

He opened the door and escorted me himself to the head of the stairs.
When I reached the darkness of the next landing, I looked back to see him still standing there peering after me.

"Good-by," I said, "and thanks."
"Good-by and God be with you," said Mr. Ogilby.

I clattered heedlessly down the nauseous, dangerous stairs, keeping well to the wall, to be sure, but quite unmindful of their treacherous gloom; for now I had a definite plan and all the money I was likely to need, and the brave words of the little, old gentleman on the top floor were still echoing like a bugle in my ears. I set my face west and half running, half walking, found my way back to my hotel.

"Good luck?" asked my friend, the hotel clerk.
"Yes," I said, drawing out my money. "I want to pay my bill and have you put half of this in the safe. Put it in an envelope under your own name, so that, if need be, you can telegraph it to me."
"Going away?" he asked, as un-startled as if my sudden wealth were the most natural thing in the

world.
"I'm not sure," I said, "and for the present I am going to keep my room. Has any mail come for me?" The clerk shook his head. I hardly expected any, and turned away to search the red telephone book for a list of detective agencies. I found several, and, with the old gentleman's advice still in my mind, committed to memory the addresses of four or five which struck my fancy.

I thought I would make the rounds until I found some man I personally liked, who seemed honest, intelligent, and experienced enough to work with me and for me. But before going out again, stopped at the desk and repeated the names which I had chosen to the clerk.

"Do you know anything about any of these people?" I asked him.
"I guess they're all of them straight enough," said the clerk.
"Still after the mysterious Slater, or are you out for revenge?"
"A little of both," I answered,
"or even a little of either."

"Well," said the clerk, "that's the way to do it, providing of course that you get a good Sherlock.
These sleuths are like everybody else, some of them straight, some of them crooked. Don't be afraid to cross-examine them. By the way, the mail's just come in. Shall I run over it for you, or are you in too much of a hurry?"

"No," I said, "I'll wait, but there isn't such chance that you'll find anything."

In spite of my doubt, I found myself waiting very impatiently.
"Here you are," the clerk said;
"is this any use to you?" and he tossed a letter onto the counter.

The envelope was an ordinary one, thumb-marked and dirty, and with a bloated distortion, as if it had once been wet. It had been addressed to me at Marbury, and readdressed from there in a scrawl of purple ink. As carefully as my excitement would permit I tore it open, and pulled out the little half-sheet it contained.

"Steady on," said the clerk,
"what is the matter?"

OFFICIALS' SPECIAL GOES INTO DITCH

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., July 26.—A special train on the Guyan Valley branch of the Chesapeake & Ohio bearing President George W. Stevens, Fourth Vice President Caples, Superintendent Carey and other officials of the system, was derailed and wrecked at an early hour this morning near Barboursville. The train was proceeding slowly owing to the impaired condition of the track, resulting from the recent heavy rains, and it was due to this fact that the accident did not result in fatalities.

BEST BUTTER IS SENT TO GOTHAM

CHICAGO, July 26.—That the highest grade of butter is shipped to New York and a lower grade consumed in Chicago, was a disclosure made today at the federal examination into the affairs of the Chicago butter and egg board before Master in Chancery Charles B. Morrison.

No matter whether you do a thing or whether you don't people will talk about you.

SWIMS HALF MILE TO SAVE COMRADES

CHICAGO, July 26.—Swimming more than half a mile John Canivan was responsible for saving his own life and the lives of three friends who started on a fishing trip with him last night. The fishing party was far out in the lake when the gasoline in Canivan's launch gave out. The boat started to drift. Canivan believed he could swim to the shore and get help. He was about 200 feet from the shore when his strength failed him. His shouts were heard by Policemen Jere Murray and John McNamara. Both the policemen, who are expert swimmers, reached Canivan and dragged him to shore, and after he was able to tell of the plight of his companions, rescued the other three men from the drifting launch.

INSANE MURDERER ESCAPES ASYLUM

Northern Minnesota in Terror Over Escape of Bjorn Ostby from Hospital for Criminal Insane

ST. PETER, Minn., July 26.—Every town and hamlet within thirty or forty miles of the state hospital for the criminal insane at St. Peter is today terrorized over the escape of Bjorn Ostby, twenty year old insane murderer, who killed his father at Duluth two years ago. Ostby made his escape late Wednesday, but three other desperadoes who were in the plot with him were caught before they made their way from the building.

FARMERS HUNT CHILD'S SLAYER

Lynching Probable if Posse Catches Farm Hand whose Crime Was Like that of Swartz

CARMEL, Me., July 26.—Enraged farmers who refused to accept Deputy Sheriff commissions, preferring to take the law in their own hands, today searched for a farm hand, formerly an inmate of an asylum, suspected of the brutal murder of Naomi Etta Mitchell, a 14-year-old girl, whose shockingly mutilated body was found last night in a corn field 400 yards from her home.

The little girl's murder was a striking parallel of the Julia Connors case. With her throat cut from ear to ear, so deep that the knife severed the handkerchief used to gag the child, the body was found almost nude, and bearing many signs of violence. The hands were tied behind her back, so cruelly strained and knotted that one shoulder was dislocated and it was evident that she had made a desperate struggle.

LA FOLLETTE WILL STAND BY PARTY

Declares Only Way to Accomplish End is for Progressives to Vote with G. O. P.

MADISON, Wis., July 26.—In another long editorial today, Senator La Follette called upon all "true progressives" to stand firm against a third party movement, saying that their highest obligation is to continue to fight within the republican party for progressive principles, policies and candidates. Roosevelt is pictured as in open alliance with the reactionaries during his term in the presidency and as indifferent to those republicans who were fighting for direct primaries and other reforms. "In no partisan spirit," says the senator, "I repeat that the progressive movement began within the republican party. It rapidly advanced its control, shaping the policies of state administrations and stamping its impression upon national legislation as a distinctly progressive republican movement, and upon this fact in recent political history I appeal to progressive republicans everywhere to maintain their organization within the republican party. To maintain such an organization, blind allegiance to every party nomination and to every party declaration is not essential."

CONVICTS WOULD WED BEFORE DEATH

DENVER, July 26.—Frank Wilson and Mae Knudsen, each under sentence to the penitentiary for counterfeiting, today asked United States Marshal Bailey for permission to be married before they are separated to serve their prison terms. The fear that Wilson may die of tuberculosis before his term is finished caused the woman to request that they be married.

Italian school children trained in the "Children's Houses" under the new Montessori method are said to have become "frenzied with joy" at finding they could write. The children learn to write in incredibly short time under the new method, two or three months often being sufficient for the smallest of the tots. A man spends a good portion of his time deceiving himself, and a woman spends a good portion of hers before a mirror. It's the same thing. Swedish gymnastics still retain their international favor. A conference recently held in Buenos Ayres provided for a still further development of the art in Argentina. It's hard for a man with a grievance to stick to the truth.

Star Swimmers of National Reputations on Program of North Side Carnival

Among the star swimmers with the water show which will appear at the north side carnival next week, are: Grace Hall, Florence Sheubler and Kitty Hall, all of whom have gained national reputations for their ability as water nymphs and have gained many medals and other trophies for their prowess as natorial wonders. Little Grace Hall, who is a mere child, is the girl who swam from the battery at South Ferry, N. Y., to Fort Hamilton, away out in the bay, while she has also made a number of long swims along the Atlantic seaboard. Her most recent feat was the winning of the ladies' race at Steeplechase park at Coney Island, the week before last when she was the recipient of a handsome gold medal of which she is justly proud. Florence Sheubler is another clever little swimmer and her graceful antics in the water have gained for her the soubriquet of "The Girl Fish." Florence has also been awarded many medals and prizes and until joining the Hatch water circus was a familiar figure at all of the regattas and various swimming concourses at the various summer beaches in the vicinity of Greater New York. Kitty Hall, who is a sister of the dolphin-like Grace, is also an excellent swimmer and has also won a number of cups, medals and diplomas besides having been the official instructor at the municipal swimming pool at Brooklyn, N. Y., for the past few seasons.

SNODGRASS MAKES A NIFTY FIELDER

Snodgrass, of the New York Giants, is making some record this season in the way of nifty fielding of ground balls out of his territory. Any opposing player who makes an extra base on Snodgrass is a hummer. It would surprise some persons who have not watched the Giants' games of late to know how many opposing runs have been sidetracked by Snodgrass' clean fielding of safe hits. The fielding of grounders in the outfield is very seldom spectacular, but it is nevertheless a mighty important department of the game.

TITANIC IS WRECKED BUT NOT ON ICE

Bert Bice last night brought his new launch, the Titanic, which broke down above Onalaska Sunday, down to North La Crosse, where he will complete repairing the craft to get it back in first class condition. While coming down the river Sunday, the engine wheel in the boat broke, and after Mr. Bice had put in a new wheel he lost it, so he had to let the boat remain up above Onalaska. He has now got his boat back to the North side, where he will get a new engine wheel and fix up his boat so that it will be in the best of repair.

FEA ATTEMPT ON KING

BELIEVE ANNIVERSARY OF PRE-DECESSOR'S SLAYING WILL DATE FOR EFFORT TO KILL VICTOR EMANUEL

OME, July 26.—Police preparations were begun today to guard Victor Emanuel and Queen Helena against another attempt at as-sination when they go to the theater Monday to attend the mass celebration on the anniversary of King Hubert's murder by an anarchist.

It was as his majesty was on his way to the mass celebration over the late king's tomb on the anniversary of his birthday that the anarchist D'Alba tried to kill King Victor.
March 14, this year, and despite the certainty they feel that the attempt was the result of a conspiracy in which many men were involved, the police have never succeeded in arresting anyone but D'Alba. The fear that they may again try to kill the king is worrying officialdom and the anniversary of his predecessor's as-sination strikes them as a likely date for it.

Right Food Works Wonders

It is often the case that people drift into wrong habits of food, although they should know better.

When one gets into trouble of this sort it's a fine thing to know how to get out of it. The "food route" is the common sense way back to health and comfort.

FOOD

is made of wheat and barley, so perfectly cooked that it is partially pre-digested and contains the vital tissue-making elements required for the daily rebuilding of body and brain.

A dish of Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast and physical condition for the day's work.

ited friends in La Crosse yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Da Cou, who bile several days ago to visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Soell, left on the Morning Star yesterday for Mc-Gregor. From McGregor they will return to their home at Ossian, Ia., in their automobile. They intended to make the trip from La Crosse to their home in their automobile but the poor roads made this impossible.

Several housewives of La Crosse appeared in county court yesterday, declaring that their neglect to test certain pieces of cloth which they had purchased from peddlers had resulted in their paying twenty cents per yard for ten cent grade of cotton. The women were called to testify against Mirchiont Lu-biango and Salvatore Lantolucis, charged with obtaining money under false pretense.

According to the evidence introduced, the defendants displayed linen samples to several La Crosse women which stood the customary test and then sold them a cheap grade of cotton. The women neglected to test the purchased cloth at the time, being under the impression that it was of the same material as the sample.

The men were bound over to the circuit court and each furnished a $500 bond for their reappearance.
The maximum fine is $200, and it is probable that they will plead guilty before their case is called.

ing and fell. He was taken home fatally injured.

LUTIONS AFTER CHAIR-MAN ESCAPES

Resolutions condemning President Taft and endorsing Col. Roosevelt were adopted here at a meeting of the republican county central committee, after a physical struggle that threatened to leave many of the committeemen injured bodily.

The hold-over chairman of the committee, F. G. Sanborn, is a Taft supporter. Following the routine business of the committee Sanborn hastily put a motion to adjourn and declared it carried. Followed by fifteen others he started to leave the hall. There were forty-nine Roosevelt supporters in the hall and they immediately intercepted the departing chairman. A revolt was threatened but Sanborn reached the door and escaped.

WILL BAR PUBLIC FROM HER TRIAL

Atlanta Society Woman Alleged to Have Shot Her Husband to Be Tried Quietly

ATLANTA, Ga., July 26.—Atlanta's society, eagerly looking forward to the trial of Mrs. Daisy Ople Grace, for assault with intent to kill her husband, was disappointed today when Judge L. S. Roan practically decided to exclude the public from his court room.

The cramped, dingy room where the wife must answer to the charge of shooting Eugene Grace seats only 125 persons. Thousands have already applied to court officials for "cards of admission." Judge Roan frowned on a plan to rent the city auditorium and force Mrs. Grace publicly to play her part in the tragedy.

Counsel on both sides agreed today that the trial would be of short duration. It was expected that a jury would be reached early on Monday, when the case is set, and that a verdict would be returned by Tuesday evening. The prosecution has twenty witnesses. It was said that the defense would probably not call any witnesses. Eugene Grace was shot on the night of March 5, while sleeping in the bedroom of his home. Mrs. Grace, who left the bedroom early in the morning for a brief trip out of town, was charged by her husband with the shooting, although he said he was asleep when shot. Mrs. Grace denied the shooting story, and hinted at another woman in the case.

CITY FORESTALLS POSTOFFICE RULE

The ruling of Postmaster General Hitchcock which was sent to the postmasters of the country with the purpose of preventing romantic girls from "making dates" with their lovers unknown to their parents by means of letters directed to "general delivery," has been in practical effect at the La Crosse postoffice for two years, according to Postmaster William Tscherner today.

The new ruling gives the postmaster the right to require all persons desiring to have their mail delivered at general delivery, give in writing their names and addresses and to furnish a statement explaining why they want their mail at this window.

"The general delivery service is often abused," said Mr. Tscherner today, "and for two years we have followed the policy of requiring minors, girls especially, to bring written permission from their parents or guardians before we gave them their mail at general delivery."

"I know of one instance when this policy was the means of protecting a young girl from the wiles of a stranger. She was much put out when we informed her mother of her correspondence with a stranger but she has been in to thank us for it since."

PORTAGE MAN IS ARRESTED HERE

Clarence Lynch, wanted by the police of Portage, Wis., on a charge of assault with intent to kill, was arrested today by the local police at the Hynde-Bendur Granite works, where he has been employed for the last few days. He was arrested on a description sent by the Portage police and admitted when taken to the police station today that he is the man wanted. When searched, a clipping from a local paper saying that he had come to La Crosse and was wanted by the police, was found in his pockets. He is being held until sent for by the Portage authorities. He is accused of attempting to kill his wife.

NO PLATFORM AT BULLMOOSE MEET

Statement of Principles Will Be Embodied in a "Contract with the People"

CHICAGO, July 26.—There will be no platform adopted at the national convention of progressives, it was learned today. Instead the leaders of the progressive movement will present to the convention for adoption a "contract with the people," and a promise to live up to the contract.

This contract will pledge the support of the party's views on the initiative, recall, referendum, direct primaries, direct election of senators and "general social reforms to improve living conditions."

A remedy of the high cost of living likely will not be offered in the contract. The convention is expected also to take no action upon the question of the unemployed.

At progressive headquarters today Medill McCormick gave out a telegram which he received from Col. Roosevelt, which praised the Illinois third party supporters.

CLOTHIERS ACCEPT SUMMITTS' CHALLENGE

The La Crosse Clothing company baseball club has accepted the challenge of the Summits for a series of three games for a side bet of $100, winner of two out of three games to take all gate receipts and the deposit, and it now seems certain that these games will be held. In a letter to the Tribune today the Clothiers have the following to say:

"Complying with Manager Kolb's request of the Clothiers to deposit $100 as a side bet at Pay Lewis' cigar store by Tuesday evening, July 30, we will say that we will govern ourselves accordingly and have the amount stipulated on hand at the proper time and place. We will be only too pleased to make it $150."

Besides taking over the $200 deposit, we demand that the winners of two out of three games take all gate receipts."

SERVANTS OF RICH WOMAN THIEVES

CHICAGO, July 26.—Every fashionable hotel in Chicago was searched today by detectives in an effort to locate Mrs. Nicholas J. McNamara, herself a millionaire, and her two children. The local police acted upon a telegram from San Mateo, Cal., her home, saying that the police want two persons with her for grand larceny. Mrs. McNamara is accompanied by Mrs. C. Perkins, Fred Pattison, a chauffeur, and Patrick Welsh, a servant. The telegram specified that the charges were against Mrs. Perkins and Welsh.

RITTER QUILTS RACE FOR COUNTY OFFICE

Theodore Ritter, deputy clerk, today announced his withdrawal from the race for register of deeds. Mr. Ritter announced his candidacy several weeks ago and his papers have been circulated but after a careful canvass of the situation has decided to drop out. This leaves one candidate for the position on the democratic ticket, Benjamin Shove, who was a candidate two years ago is again in the field this year and will oppose the election of Andrew Thompson, present register of deeds. Shove was defeated by a large vote in 1910.

COUNTER-ATTACK MADE ON NORRIS

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Charging Representative Norris, the progressive republican from Nebraska, with "destroying the republican party," Representative Humphrey (Rep., Wash.) today replied to Norris' speech attacking the nomination of President Taft as fraudulent. Humphrey criticized Norris for suppressing the name of "a high and influential party leader," who said the Washington delegates were "stolen" for Taft.

KENOSHA PLAYERS KEEP UP WINNING

Doing Excellent Work at State Golf Meet and Three Are in the Semi-Finals

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 26.—Surprises not a few featured the elimination matches in Thursday's play in the annual state golf tournament at the Blue Mound Country club. Kenosha golfers again pulled down the largest share of the honors, for three of the pill chasers who are to appear in Friday's semi-finals are proteges of ob Bob Simpson.

In the championship flight the merciless elimination derby forced out both old and new stars. Milwaukee is still represented and on the showing of the contestants on Thursday in reality has little to fear in the grand final on Saturday. Ned Allis, the youthful driver from the Milwaukee Country club, reached the semi-finals by defeating J. J. Hosh and G. J. Carroll, both of the Blue Mound club, by scores of 5 up and 4 to play, 7 up and 6 to play, respectively. The other gutta-percha pounders who will play the semi-final matches on Friday are Chick Allen, last year's runner up; Mac Kehlor and Gordon Yule, all of the Kenosha Country club.

Outside of the splendid golf played by Ned Allis, present title holder, and the unexpected good work of Mac Kehlor, the Kenosha youngster, was the defeat of Dick Cavanaugh, former state champion, by the same Kehlor in the first round of the championship flight Thursday morning.

R. D. Gordon of La Crosse was beaten in the first round of the championship flight by F. W. Jacobs of Madison, 7 up and 5 to play. In the first round for the president's cup, F. H. Hankerson beat E. B. Vesich of Sheboygan, 1 up. Emil Niemeyer and George Van Auken met with defeat in this round.

Playing for the Innovation cup, C. Colman of La Crosse finished with a net score of 87.

R. D. Gordon was beaten by Davis in the first round for the vice president's cup. E. Niemeyer and G. Van Auken were both victorious in the first round for the secretary's cup.

GIRL ACCUSES TWO STRANGERS OF THEFT

John Silverine and John T. Williams, giving Marshalltown and Des Moines, Ia., as their homes, are being held by the police on complaint of Miss Genevieve Dunn who declares that they stole her pocket-book containing nearly $3 in cash and several valuable trinkets. The two men were searched by Detectives McGrath and Fitzsimmons this morning as being suspicious characters and then given their freedom. Shortly after they entered the office of the La Crosse Pure Food company, 108 South Second street and applied for positions. While Miss Dunn, who is employed there as a stenographer, left the room to summon the manager, the men are thought to have taken her pocket-book which lay upon her desk.

Shortly after they left she discovered her loss and reported the matter to the police. Patrolman T. J. McDonough arrested them a few moments later. Upon the second inventory, it was found that one of the men had eighty cents and a "jag" while the other had twenty cents and a bigger "jag." When searched by the detectives this morning, neither had any money.

THINK THREE ARE TRAPPED IN PIT

Believed Three Miners Have Escaped Drowning in Pennsylvania Mine

ARE PUMPING OUT SHAFT

100 Men Work Desperately to Save Comrades Cut Off by Flood Into Workings

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 26.—At Lemont mine, 100 men are battling today for the lives of three miners believed to be water trapped in the pits. The trio were caught 1,800 feet from the mouth of the mine, and may be staying off death in a gallery leading upwards. At the water's edge far down in the shaft the rescuers fight the flood back inch by inch. The biggest pumps of the mine are coupled and firemen feeding the boilers that drive the pumps are relieved hourly.

Hope is dead at nearby Superba mine, where fourteen or fifteen miners were drowned Wednesday, and while the rescue work is being pushed rapidly, it may be two months before the dead bodies are taken out.

Alarming reports of loss of life in the interior of southwestern Pennsylvania and of West Virginia continue to reach here, but communication has not yet been re-established with these districts and the rumors are believed to be exaggerations.

Revised estimates of the flood's victims in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, place the death total at 26—fourteen drowned in Superba mine; three missing at Lemont mine; one dead at Wheeling, W. Va., one at Elmwood; three missing at Slock; two at Linn, Pa., and one man drowned near Clarksburg, W. Va.

SENATE PASSES BOB'S BILL TO CUT WOOL DUTY

which he believed the president had forced the senate to pass, "with the baneful lure of patronage."

Senator Williams declared that President Taft would not veto such a woolen tariff bill as the LaFollette measure if it were passed by both houses and sent to him. He said the LaFollette substitute conformed so closely with the tariff board's recommendations that the president would be compelled to sign it if it were sent to him.

Senator Penrose came forward with a compromise measure considerably higher than the democratic bill, but which regular and progressive republicans believed they could agree on.

Led by the defeated Senator Cummins, who said he would accept the Penrose bill as a "step in the right direction," all but three of the progressives rallied to the support of the bill. There were rumors in the hotel that a big fire downtown was the cause of the cutting off of the lights and water, but when we got out we found that the bursting of the dam above the city had inundated the greater part of the downtown district. It has been raining for two days and the volume of water which filled the Wisconsin river valley swept everything before it.

Power is Cut Off

"The city hall, railroad yards, city pumping station and the wholesale and a large part of the business districts were cut off from the rest of the town by the swirling torrent. The cutting off of the power house left the town without lights or water. There were 250 guests in the hotel where we stayed and they had to carry water in pails and what ever utensils they could find. A bath was at a premium; it was all we could do to get enough to drink."

"The city is supplied with water by a well system and up to a year ago they had a big reservoir. The reservoir was built by a local contractor and was a poor job. Because it was in need of repairs the city allowed it to fall into disuse and depended entirely on their pumps. If fire had started at the time of the flood nothing could have saved the city because the power house was inundated."

"The citizens obtained the water they needed by hauling it from a brewery to their homes in automobiles and wagons or by carrying it in pails."

Train Holds Down Bridge

"The Northwestern Railroad company saved their bridge by weighting it down with a trainload of logs. It nearly went out at that. Although it is usual to overestimate damage in a time of confusion accompanying a disaster like this, I believe that the damage will reach at least $1,000,000. Nearly every dam in the river was carried out and it was necessary to blow holes through others to save property."

"The damage worked by the flood was a sorry sight. The plans for the entertainment of the delegates to the convention could not be carried out because of the confusion, but they did the best they could under the circumstances."

The other delegates to the convention, all of whom returned last night, are Mayor John Dengler, George Falk, member of the board of public works, Aldermen Bert Smith, William Torrance, John Schneberger and Joseph C. Houska.

Italy is increasing her annual expenditure for education by over 30 per cent, according to the budget reported for 1912-13. The sum is 140,405,455 lire (about $28,000,000).

BANKERS OPPOSE STATE GUARANTEE

Convention Favors Proposed Mutual Insurance of Deposits Plan, Says Wing

The bankers of Wisconsin are a unit against the proposed state guarantee of bank deposits and apparently in favor of the mutual insurance of deposits plan, according to E. M. Wing, vice president of the Batavian National bank, who returned today from the Wisconsin Bankers' association convention which was held in Milwaukee.

"When the question was put to a vote," said Mr. Wing, "there was just one man who favored the state guarantee plan. The sentiment of the delegates to the convention appeared to be nearly unanimously in favor of the formation of the mutual insurance company, providing the necessary legislation can be obtained to perfect the organization of such a company. The resolution which was finally unanimously adopted instructed the committee to continue its work on the mutual insurance plan and endeavor to obtain legislation favoring this method of protecting bank deposits."

The resolution as adopted is given as follows: "Resolved, that the report of the committee on insurance of bank deposits be received and the committee be continued; that the plan submitted by it be referred to the executive council for further consideration and improvement that the executive council confer with the proper committee of the state legislature to make such an insurance company better cover the needs of both banker and depositor and protect equally all deposits of each bank becoming a member, and that a special meeting of the association be called for immediate and final action on the matter."

The unanimous passage of this resolution resulted in the introduction of a second by F. E. Woodward of Watertown, who asserted that a move toward the formation of an insurance company among the banks might lead to a law compelling insurance of bank deposits. His resolution, which was also adopted, was to the effect that the association as a body is opposed to any form of compulsory guarantee of bank deposits.

SPRING GREEN MAN DIES IN LA CROSSE

Chris Scholl, a pioneer shoe merchant of Spring Green, Wis., died of heart disease at the home of his son, Earl E. Scholl, 333 North Ninth street, at eight o'clock last evening. Death followed an illness of about a year but Mr. Scholl's condition was not considered serious and his death was unexpected and a great shock to his relatives and friends.

Mr. Scholl was sixty-two years old having been born in Germany in 1850. He was prominent in Spring Green where he conducted a shoe store for thirty-five years but he sold out his business a year ago and retired on account of ill health. He came to La Crosse three weeks ago to receive treatment for dropsy and he was getting along nicely. His death from heart failure came suddenly last evening.

Surviving him are his widow, and five sons, Earl E. Scholl of La Crosse, Alvin Scholl of Chippewa Falls, and Herbert, Ray and Joseph Scholl of Spring Green.

The body will be sent to Spring Green for burial.

INCOME TAX LAW UP

EXCISE BILL IS ORDER OF DAY IN SENATE; BORAH HAS GRADUATED TAX SUBSTITUTE

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The excise, or income tax bill, was the special order of business today in the senate. A vote on the measure was expected about 8 o'clock tonight.

The measure proposes to extend the excise tax now levied on corporations for the privilege of doing business to individuals. It was reported adversely by the senate finance committee. As a substitute to the house bill Senator Borah of Idaho, today formally offered his income tax bill.

The substitute provides for a graduated tax," he explained, "the house bill provides for a tax upon all people doing business, when the income of their business amounts to more than $5,000. It taxes energy."

My proposition is to tax incomes, beginning at $10,000, two per cent, and in regular ratio up to over $100,000 at six per cent. I think the supreme court is more likely to hold the substitute constitutional than the house bill."

FIND TRACE OF MISSING HEIRRESS

NEW YORK, July 26.—Miss Dorcas Ijams Snodgrass, the Mount Vernon society girl and former nurse missing from home for more than a week, went to Cleveland, Ohio, last Saturday night aboard New York Central fast mail No. 21, according to a tip this afternoon furnished the police by Lee A. Breeze, a conductor of that train, just returned here.

ELEVATED STRIKE OVER BOSTON, July 26.—An agreement between officials of the Boston Elevated street railway company and the newly formed union, was reached this afternoon, after a three hours conference, and the strike declared off.

March Five Miles

The Blue army consisting of 3,000 infantry, cavalry, artillery with half an ambulance company, marched to a point about five miles west of Camp Douglas yesterday morning. At noon, tents were pitched in a sixty acre deserted cow pasture and a light mess was served to the soldiers.

The afternoon was spent in recreation by the men who roamed over the beautiful hills outside of camp picking blueberries, which are plentiful.

Under the careful eyes of the medical department the camp is left in the most sanitary condition. The total amount of calories of meat necessary to the daily upkeep of a soldier on the march has been figured out to a nicety by the government. Although the men don't understand much about this calorie business, there are few kicks heard about the grub furnished.

Weather Ideal

The weather yesterday was ideal. A cool breeze made marching more of a pleasure than it would be otherwise. Twenty minute halts were made several times along the route and the time was spent in hunting the lowly blueberry.

So far there has been very little business for the ambulance corps. George Ebert of Co. K of Tomah, was overcome by the heat yesterday morning but was in good shape today.

There has been some misunderstanding as to just who is entitled to wear the Esch medal next year. It is awarded to the man of Co. M who makes the highest score at camp. Corp. A. Miller and Private Keim tied with a score of 127 but as the medal goes to the one who makes the highest score at 500 yards Miller would get it under that ruling. As 500 yards is the easiest of the three ranges to shoot, some sentiment is for the man who makes the most consistent marks. As yet the medal has not been officially awarded to either.

The march of the Blue army was continued this morning and it was expected to reach Weyerville by noon. What was but a short time before a white tented camp was changed in the short space of about thirty minutes into one of a more dark complexion Wednesday afternoon. In preparation for the field maneuvers which started yesterday the white conical tents were taken down and the brown "pup-tents" were set up. It certainly did present a dog-town appearance and the way the men disappear into them reminds one of a bunch of scared gophers.

About 35 miles of territory will be the scene of the maneuvers. After about ten days of fighting the last scenes will be staged likely on the Camp McCoy reservation. Col. Richards, lieutenant colonel of the Third Wisconsin will be in command of that regiment.

Battalion drill was the principal event for yesterday morning. Skirmish practice runs were held in the course of the exercise. Inspection of quarters and men by a regular army officer took place immediately preceding the drill.

Photographers in camp are being kept busy "mugging" the men and the canteen studio is selling said photos at a premium. "Rookey" sentries are a hard proposition when it comes to getting through the guard line, even in the daytime. Several old men have nursed splitting headaches as the result of too close contact with the guns of the "yearlings."

There are now three bands at Camp Douglas. The Third Regiment, the Second from Milwaukee and that of the Third Illinois are all competing for applause.

Chefs Richardson and Ben Lund, of Co. M, have the goods on when it comes to cooking. Meals are the best in years but field rations require a much better appetite to enjoy than the culinary wrinkles heretofore served up.

Take Cavalry Outpost

The advance cavalry guard of the Blue army yesterday afternoon accomplished one of the first strategic victories of the maneuvers, when they surrounded and captured eight men and an officer, composing a cavalry outpost of the Red army. The two forces met about seven miles from the camp pitched yesterday by the Blue army.

The heavy firing of the encounter between the two squads of outposts attracted the attention of other bodies of Blue cavalry which were paralleling the country roads parallel to that on which the encounter took place. Hurrying across country, these other bodies of troops took up positions in ambush cutting the escape of the Red outpost. The Reds started to flee down the road they were met by the men in muzzles of rifles from the bushes flanking the roadside. One captain managed to escape by spurring his horse, but eight men and Lieutenant Colley were taken. The prisoners were sent back to headquarters and placed under strong guard.

To offset this advantage gained by the Blues, Brigadier-General Hoyt yesterday announced that he had received official dispatches informing him that Oakdale, Weyerville and Valley Junction had been destroyed by his troops. Most of the work was done by the cavalry, although the other arms of the service joined in to help at Valley Junction in the morning.

OLYMPIAN JUMPS TRACK IN DAKOTA

ST. PAUL, July 26.—Running at high speed, the Olympian, the coast train of the St. Paul road, narrowly escaped disaster at 6 o'clock yesterday morning near Hettinger, S. D., when the engine left the tracks, broke its coupling and plunged across the prairie for 300 feet. Had the accident occurred anywhere but on the level, passengers declare the accident would have been serious. A defective rail caused the accident, which ditched the engine alone. The engineer and fireman stuck to their post until the locomotive invaded a grain field and jumped from the cab as it turned turtle. A number of couplings were broken and the passengers aroused by the shock, but none was injured. The train arrived in the Twin city four and a half hours late last night.

"COP" TOO FREE WITH STRONG ARM

ST. PAUL, July 26.—"You want to be more careful about using that club of yours," said Police Judge Handt this morning to Patrolman W. Carr, who had William Holden in court on charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Holden, whose head was bandaged, said he went into a saloon at East Seventh and Locust streets last evening, where a fight was in progress. The policeman struck at one of the combatants and then hit Holden over the head. The two fighters were not arrested. The cases against Holden were stricken.

RINGDAL TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR

ST. PAUL, July 26.—P. M. Ringdal, chairman of the state board of control, today filed for the democratic nomination for governor. Should he win at the primaries he doubtless will resign the position he now holds to make the race against the republican nominee. In a formal statement he says he is responding to the demands made upon him by his friends and puts it up to them to make good their claims that he is needed to lead the party in the coming campaign.

ST. PAUL, July 26.—When the chorus of 2,000 male voices here from all parts of the northwest for the Saengerfest "opened up" in response to the baton of National Conductor Theodore Kelbe at the first general rehearsal, a small group of persons who had been allowed to attend looked up in wonder and surprise. Almost before the first passage of one of the German folk songs had been finished the audience was unable to contain itself, and broke out into applause.

Gov. Wilson was expected to come out of his speech writing retirement late tomorrow or Sunday. He will be notified at the "Little White House," on August 7.

SNEED AND WIFE ARE RECONCILED

FORT WORTH, Texas, July 26.—After figuring in one of the most sensational trials in the history of Texas as a result of the murder of Captain A. G. Boyce, John Beal Sneed, wealthy Amarillo banker, and his wife have become reconciled. The slaying of Boyce followed the elopement of Mrs. Sneed with Al Boyce, son of the wealthy planter. Sneed and his wife today left for Georgetown, Texas, where they will make their home. The jury disagreed in Sneed's trial for the slaying of the elder Boyce.

A bachelor finds it so easy to get married that he is apt to be suspicious. A man may occasionally have the last word, but with a woman there isn't any.

M'GRAW SAYS HE WILL CAPTURE RAG

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 26.—There is not the slightest doubt in the minds of John J. McGraw that his Giants will win the National league pennant again, and that later they will take the world's series. Enroute from Toronto to New York early today McGraw said: "We would win from the Athletics of last fall without much trouble right now, and whether the Athletics or the Boston Red Sox, as now seems probable, confront us in the fall, you can gamble a bit that we will win."

There is nothing so unbecoming to a woman as a last year's hat. The average man would rather go to church than to a family picnic. It's better to be able to do things than it is to be a great orator.

TENDERFOOT WHO FINDS THE GOLD

Amateurs Who Look for Yellow Metal by Hazardous Methods Are Luckiest

It seems as if in the majority of cases in Colorado it is the "tenderfoot" who makes the discovery of big gold mines. He has no theories as to the "proper formations" in which to search for gold, he looks in any old rock, and follows unknowingly the principle that "gold is where you find it." In the early days of Cripple Creek a man came down from the mines to Colorado Springs, and a friend meeting him on the street said: "Well, how are things up at the Creek?" "Oh," said the miner, "the miners are looking for the gold where it ought to be, and the tenderfeet are finding it where it is."

In Ouray two tenderfeet went to the top of a sheer cliff of sandstone, just north of town, and tying a rope to a quaking asp sapling, one lowered the other about 30 feet down the face so that he could crawl into a hole which they had seen from the valley below. The floor of the cave was covered with about a foot of red dirt, which assayed 10 oz. gold per ton, and this was the discovery of the American Nettie, since credited with an output of two millions. Stratton was not exactly a tenderfoot, but he was a carpenter and not in any sense a miner, and prospected in the summer, and took for assay some common red granite that he found sticking up like a vein. And when his first carload of Independence granite rolled into the yards of the Boston & Colorado Smelting Co., the manager laughed exceedingly, but it sampled 3 oz. gold to the ton, and has produced over ten millions.

The Camp Bird was staked by a greenhorn just out from the Royal School of Mines, of London, the first vein he had ever seen except in books, and it has produced over twenty-two millions.

Another great gold mine in the state, which shall be nameless so as not to hurt anyone's feelings and which has paid many millions in dividends, was discovered by a plumber, and some time later when he had become a millionaire and had learned to wear a clawhammer coat and boiled shirt, and mix with the "quality," he was dining out, and the host said to a friend next him, "See that man down the table? Well, not over three years ago he was doing a job of plumbing in my cellar, and he got into the wine bin and drank up a lot of my finest brand of champagne."

But it is not always thus with the tenderfoot, for it is recorded of the Osceola at Ophir that one of them refused to stake the outcrop, which showed quantities of free gold, on the grounds that it was "native brass" and therefore worthless. However, enough wonders have been worked in the way of discoveries by tenderfeet to show that no formation must be classed at sight as nongold-bearing, not even the grindstone or the jug handle. W. Weston in The Engineering and Mining Journal of July 20, 1912.

SHOW NOT TO PARADE

BUFFALO BILL WILL CONFINE HIMSELF TO PERFORMANCE WITHOUT PAGEANT

The announcement is made that Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Far East will not give a street parade on the day of exhibiting in this city. There are several reasons for this decision, but the principal one is found in the fact that horses and men give an improved performance when they are not compelled to parade in the hot sun or disagreeable rain for a couple of hours. It is furthermore advanced that delays in transporting an organization of the magnitude of the exhibition often prevent the arriving in town until late, and the work of transferring the paraphernalia to the show grounds requires the united forces of the company in order that the afternoon performance may not be delayed. It would seem, in that event, that it would be more advisable to care for a proper presentation of the exhibition rather than to divide the forces into parade groups and take them away from the places where they are most needed. By eliminating the street cavalcade the riding stock and performers are fresh for their important duty of giving a high-class entertainment, enlisting the best of their ability and returning to the public the full benefit of their talents, to which they are entitled.

LIKE AGRICULTURE SCHOOLS

The English like our agricultural schools. After examining Cornell, Wisconsin and other well known institutions in the United States, a deputation reported its impressions in the following terms: "The unrivaled position of Wisconsin in the production of cheese and butter is the direct result of scientific teaching happily wedded to prudent legislation. If any one still doubts these things, and deems it worth while to go on repeating the skeptical question, 'Can agriculture be taught?' our advice is that he should go to Canada and the United States and see the thing done, and done upon a great scale."

SEA 5 MILES DEEP

POPE IS AFTER REBELS

WILL USE FORCE OF CHURCH TO KEEP SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES FROM CONSTANT REVOLUTION

ROME, July 26.—Pope Pius, in the near future, may take a hand in correcting the penchant of Latin American republicans to indulge in revolutions.

The step he is declared to have in mind will be only part of a work he has just undertaken for improving the condition of the poorer classes in Central and South America. This work was initiated by the issuance of an encyclical to all Central and South American bishops calling on them for special efforts to better the condition of Indians.

This encyclical, it is declared at the Vatican, will soon be followed by another to Latin American bishops, archbishops, nuncios and the apostolic delegates to use their best efforts toward educating the people away from the idea of revolution which the Pope deems largely responsible for the misery of the poor.

RETURNED AFTER MURDER

ROME, July 26.—After murdering his brother, his brother's wife, and their two children, a peasant named Cristoforo Ponzoni returned to the insane asylum at Allesandria, from which he had been sent to the asylum for killing his own wife and only son.

Hapgood Says Third Party Must Nominate Democrat at the Coming Convention

NEW YORK, July 26.—Formal denial that he had "dropped Roosevelt," as asserted in a head-line in the New York Times, was issued today by Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly, just back from abroad. He said:

"Our paper is delighted that one of the great parties has won a victory over the machine and the money influences and nominated their best man for the presidency. The mistake of the Times was in supposing that support of Gov. Wilson must mean withdrawal of support from Col. Roosevelt. We look for much benefit from the third party movement. Suppose Wilson is elected and finds the reactionary forces in his party too strong for him, there will be fight and many thousands of democrats will go to the new party in 1916 and Wilson himself may be the nominee. It is extremely important that the new party shall conduct its campaign on broad conservative lines without allowing itself to attacks on Gov. Wilson and that it next week shall select a democrat as the next presidential nominee, thus making it easier for the ordinary mind to grasp the fact that it is not intended as a bolting republican party but as an absolutely new party of freedom and progress."

SEND PONIES ABROAD

ILLINOIS DEALER SHIPS SHETLAND PONIES TO ENGLAND FOR USE IN COLLIERIES IN WALES

CHICAGO, July 26.—A new product of America's agriculture has been added to the exports of the country through a shipment of Shetland ponies to England. It was like carrying coals to Newcastle, which for the last two centuries has been looked upon among the things impossible. The ponies were for use in the coal mines of England and Wales, but the fact that it was found necessary to import horse power for the mines was due to the new prosperity in Argentina in South America—the supply of ponies for boys and girls of Europe has been drawn upon so heavily by the parents of Argentine, that when a new law was passed in England prohibiting the use of any but male ponies in the mine pits, the mine owners found their only supply on a pony farm near Chicago, owned by Theodore S. Simpson of Aurora. When he first began breeding Shetland ponies all of the supply was imported from the Shetland Islands, Scotland and England, but pony breeding has made such astonishing strides because of the ready market, high prices and handsome profits of that novel form of agriculture that pony breeding has become an industry of imposing proportions. American breeders have been unusually successful in this as in other lines. "The English miners prefer ponies that are only 38 inches high and cannot use any that are over 43 inches high," Mr. Simpson said. "This new market makes the present the best time we ever saw for engaging in the Shetland pony business as we are able to get prices that compare favorably with those for horses and yet can keep six ponies on the feed required for a big horse. In one instance a pair of stallions about 42 inches high were sold to Alfred Vanderbilt for $2,500 by an Illinois breeder."

School authorities of Leipzig, Germany, are fighting the smoking habit among school children. It is reported that in one school 80 per cent of the pupils smoked, in another 74 per cent and in still another 84 per cent.

FEED SCHOOL PUPILS

TO HONOR REPUBLIC

The intimate connection between hungry bodies and hungry minds is receiving practical attention in European cities. In Berlin 7,000 pupils in one year had school lunches furnished them; in Hamburg 3,000; while in Leipzig the number thus aided amounted to 2,200, according to information received at the United States bureau of education. In Munich and Nuremberg both breakfast and lunch are furnished to needy pupils. In Ludwigshafen bread and milk are given each morning to the children who have reached school without having been fed. In Belgium soup and bread are given to the impoverished pupils; in Liege alone in 1910, 344,297 rations were supplied. In Italy it is considered part of the duty of the authorities to be on the lookout for pupils who seem not to be properly nourished, and to provide them with food. In Norway substantial lunches are furnished by the city authorities, a central kitchen being used for this purpose.

Among young peoples' societies in France one of the most interesting is La Jeunesse Republique, an association devoted to the support and honor of the republic. At a recent public festival a youthful representative of the association offered in the name of his comrades a solemn pledge, closing with these words: "We proclaim our devotion, without reserve, to the republic of France. We will aid by every effort in the enfranchisement of the people to whom we belong, by means of science, truth and justice."

FINE RUSSIAN PAPER

ODESSA, July 26.—A $250 fine has been imposed upon the "Pravda" for printing a mildly adverse article on the new Russian naval budget of $250,000,000. The paper argued that in the present economic condition of the country such an outlay was unwarranted, and that there was no pressing necessity for so enormously powerful a fleet.

RURAL SCHOOLS ARE NEGLECTED

E. T. Fairchild, Newly Elected Head of N. E. A., Says Country School Is Going Back

DON'T GET FULL EDUCATION

Less Than 25 Per Cent of Pupils in Rural Districts Do the Work of Grades

"The rural school is the one lag-gard in the educational procession," declares E. T. Fairchild, Kansas state superintendent of public instruction, in a monograph just published for free distribution by the United States Bureau of Education. This condition is due, among other things, to the fact that the emphasis of educational thought has been placed on the city schools, the high schools, and the colleges, at the expense of the rural school. Mr. Fairchild also finds that "the ever-increasing trend of population toward the cities, and the growing per cent of tenant farmers, have had a distinct and deterrent effect upon our country schools."

Don't Complete Work
"The following is a true, though not a full indictment," continues Mr. Fairchild. "Of the 12,000,000 rural school children, constituting a clear majority of the whole number of the youth of school age, less than 25 per cent are completing the work of the grades. The teaching body is immature and lacks proper training. Terms are short."

"School buildings are poor, insanitary, and ill-equipped. The school enrollment is constantly decreasing. The supervision is wholly inadequate. Cost of instruction is higher than in the grades. High school privileges are denied the great majority of these boys and girls."

"The strong, virile, rural school of a generation ago has gone, and in its place is a primary school weak in numbers and lacking in efficiency. The country boy and girl of this strenuous and complex twentieth century are not afforded equal educational opportunities."

"A vital weakness in our rural school system is the lack of a genuine demand for properly trained teachers. I have knowledge of one state that bears an excellent reputation educationally where, out of 8,000 rural schoolteachers in 1910, 4,400 were found to have had no training beyond the eighth grade."

"If we want to get more out of the rural schools, we must put more into them. We can never have the best rural schools until we have aroused public interest in them. The national life and character of tomorrow is set and directed by the schools of today."

"The country is the nation's great recruiting ground. To it the city has always looked for its supply of men who do the great things, who command armies, build industries, take the initiative. "It is true that the cities are the centers of organization, but they are not self-sustaining. The rural population must always be the bone and sinew of any country. More than one-half of our schools are inadequate."

SALT PUT TO VARIED USES

Invaluable to Mankind Though as a Condiment It Should Be Employed Sparingly.

If food is tasteless without salt, it is ruined with too much. Unappetizing cooking is often due to guesswork. A level teaspoonful of salt is sufficient for a quart of soup, sauce, or vegetables.

Salt used once a day is an excellent dentrifice, tending to keep off tartar. It is said to retard receding gums.

A half teaspoonful of salt added to a cup of hot water—which many persons take each morning—will make it palatable.

Do not gargle with salt water. Throat specialists consider it injurious to the tender mucous membrane of the nose.

Salt water rots the hair, so never fail to rinse with fresh water after sea bathing.

To set color in wash materials and embroidery cottons soak them in strong salt water.

An excellent tonic for nervous people is to take salt rubs twice a day. As sea salt dissolves slowly, some of it can be kept in solution in a glass jar to be ready when needed.

When a child is inclined to bow legs or to have a weak back, rub it night and morning with strong salt water.

A faded carpet is freshened if wiped off with a wet cloth wrung from strong salt water. Sprinkle floor with dampened salt and sweep well.

Bad dyspepsia can be helped by dissolving pinches of salt on the tongue after eating, or when there is a sense of oppression.

Show Yourself.

Little Marjorie was showing her new birthday toys to grandpa, when her mother told the girl to let grandpa show them to himself. Marjorie was unwilling to do this because she wished to do the exhibiting. Then an idea struck her. "Here, grandpa," she said, handing him a toy at a time as she spoke, "show yourself my dolly, show yourself my blocks." And thus she went through the collection.—Judge

CONFERENCE ENDS

WAUSAU, Wis., July 26.—The annual joint meeting of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities and Wisconsin Paid Firemen's association, ended today.

HOW GRACE BENSON BECAME FAMOUS FOR THE BEAUTY OF HER HANDS AND ARMS

Free Prescription That Can be Prepared at Home Without Expense

Grace Benton, famous for the marvelous beauty of her hands and arms in a recent interview, says: "If I could tell every woman about the prescription I have caused all this talk about my hands and arms they could everyone of them make their hands and arms just as beautiful as mine. I am glad to have the opportunity to give my receipt free to the world. It will help every woman to improve her personal appearance."

When I asked her if she would allow me to publish the prescription, she quickly answered: "Certainly, only too glad to have you do it." Turning to a desk, she wrote it on a slip of paper and handed it to me. Here it is: "Go to any drug store, get an empty two ounce bottle, also a one ounce bottle of Kulus Compound. Pour the entire bottle of Kulus into the two ounce bottle, add quarter of an ounce of witch hazel, then fill with water. Apply night and morning."

She further said: "This prescription makes the skin transparent and removes all defects, such as freckles, tan, sun spots, roughness and ruddiness. A single application works a marvelous transformation. Where low collars are worn it can be applied to the neck with equally as startling results. It is absolutely harmless, and will positively not stimulate or produce a growth of hair."

PUT QUESTION UP TO PRESIDENT TAFT

WASHINGTON, July 26.—President Taft will shortly be called on by Senator Works of California to decide whether the United States navy shall officially set aside a court martial decision to recognize Christian Science. The question is involved in the case of former Gunner's Mate Joseph Kapsa of the battleship Delaware, now serving a year's sentence in barracks because he refused to permit inoculation of the anti-typhoid virus. He said his belief in the Christian Science forbade taking medicine. Senator Works, who is a Christian Scientist, is greatly interested in the case.

Gerber of St. Paul secretary-treasurer of the association will be editor. The national association has just closed its annual meeting here.

SUMMER SKIN DISEASES

During the summer most persons are annoyed with pimples, boils, rashes, or eruptions, while others suffer more severely with Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some kindred skin disease. A perfect condition of the skin exists as long as the blood is normal, but when it becomes contaminated with humors and acids its supply of nutritive properties is greatly lessened and it becomes a sharp, acid fluid which diseases instead of preserving the natural health and texture of the skin. The eruptions may be glossed over and inflammation reduced by the application of washes, cosmetics, salves, etc., but no skin affection can ever be permanently cured in this way; only pure blood can make healthy skin. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S. S. S. builds the circulation up to its normal strength, increases its nutritive powers and adds to its purity in every way. Then the skin instead of being irritated with acid humors and impurities, is nourished and healed by a plentiful supply of rich, pure blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Mr. Gregg of Cleveland handed a goose egg to the Red Sox, permitting only four hits. The leaders started on a long western trip today.

Pittsburg had 54 men at bat in the 14 inning contest with Brooklyn, which the Pirates won 8 to 7.

Terrible Ping Bodie and Mighty Matty McIntyre smashed a two bagger and single, respectively in the tenth, winning the game from the Yankees.

The Champs and the Browns divided a double header at close scores, which is some satisfaction to the basement boys.

Gandil, Washington's sensational first sacker, featured the double-header split with Detroit, both at the bat and in the field.

Cobb copped four hits out of eight times up, helping a bit for an off-day.

The Cubs came to New York today determined to give the Giants a hot scrap on their own little Polo grounds.

CHAPMAN TO STAY WITH TOLEDO TEAM

TOLEDO, July 26.—President Somers of the Toledo club assured the Toledo fans yesterday that he had no intention of taking Shortstop Chapman away from the Mud-Hens at present. Chapman may be left until the A. A. season ends. Earl Gardner, now in Cleveland, under the doctor's care, cannot play ball for several weeks and Chapman will not be sent away until Gardner is ready to take his place, anyway.

M'CLURG TO SAIL BOAT

CHICAGO, July 26.—Since Ogden T. McClurg piloted the Michigan, the new racing yacht of the Chicago Yacht club to victory against the Mavornen, it was certain today that he would handle the stick of the Michigan against the Canadian challenger Patricia, in the challenge cup races.

Ainsmith insisted on debating with the umpire over a strike and got a trip to the bench for his oratory.

EDITOR APPEARS IN LIBEL SUIT

DENVER, Colo., July 26.—Fred R. Bonfils one of the owners of the Denver Post, appeared before Judge Hubert Shattuck today to answer a charge of criminal contempt filed against him by William G. Evans, who is suing Bonfils and H. H. Tammen, his associate for $500,000 libel. The court immediately overruled a motion by Bonfils to quash the charge, and ordered a recess until this afternoon when arguments will be heard.

During the recess Bonfils issued a lengthy statement in which he said in part: "If they send me to jail, bully, I will edit my paper from a cell, and will never stop until this damnable power is taken out of the hands of our judges, which makes us a nation of serfs."

The sexes are about equally represented in Norway's ten normal schools. In America schools of the same class, women outnumber the men more than 3 to 1.

WILSONITE BEATS CLARK SUPPORTER

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 26.—The feature of the Iowa democratic state convention at Cedar Rapids today was the defeat of N. F. Reed of Ottumwa, as member of the state central committee, to succeed himself as state chairman. He was defeated in the caucus of his own district and Henry Riegelman of Des Moines of the Seventh district, will be state chairman, when the new committee reorganizes late this afternoon. Reed was a Clark supporter before the national convention, and Riegelman a Wilson advocate.

CANOEISTS HERE FROM SUPERIOR

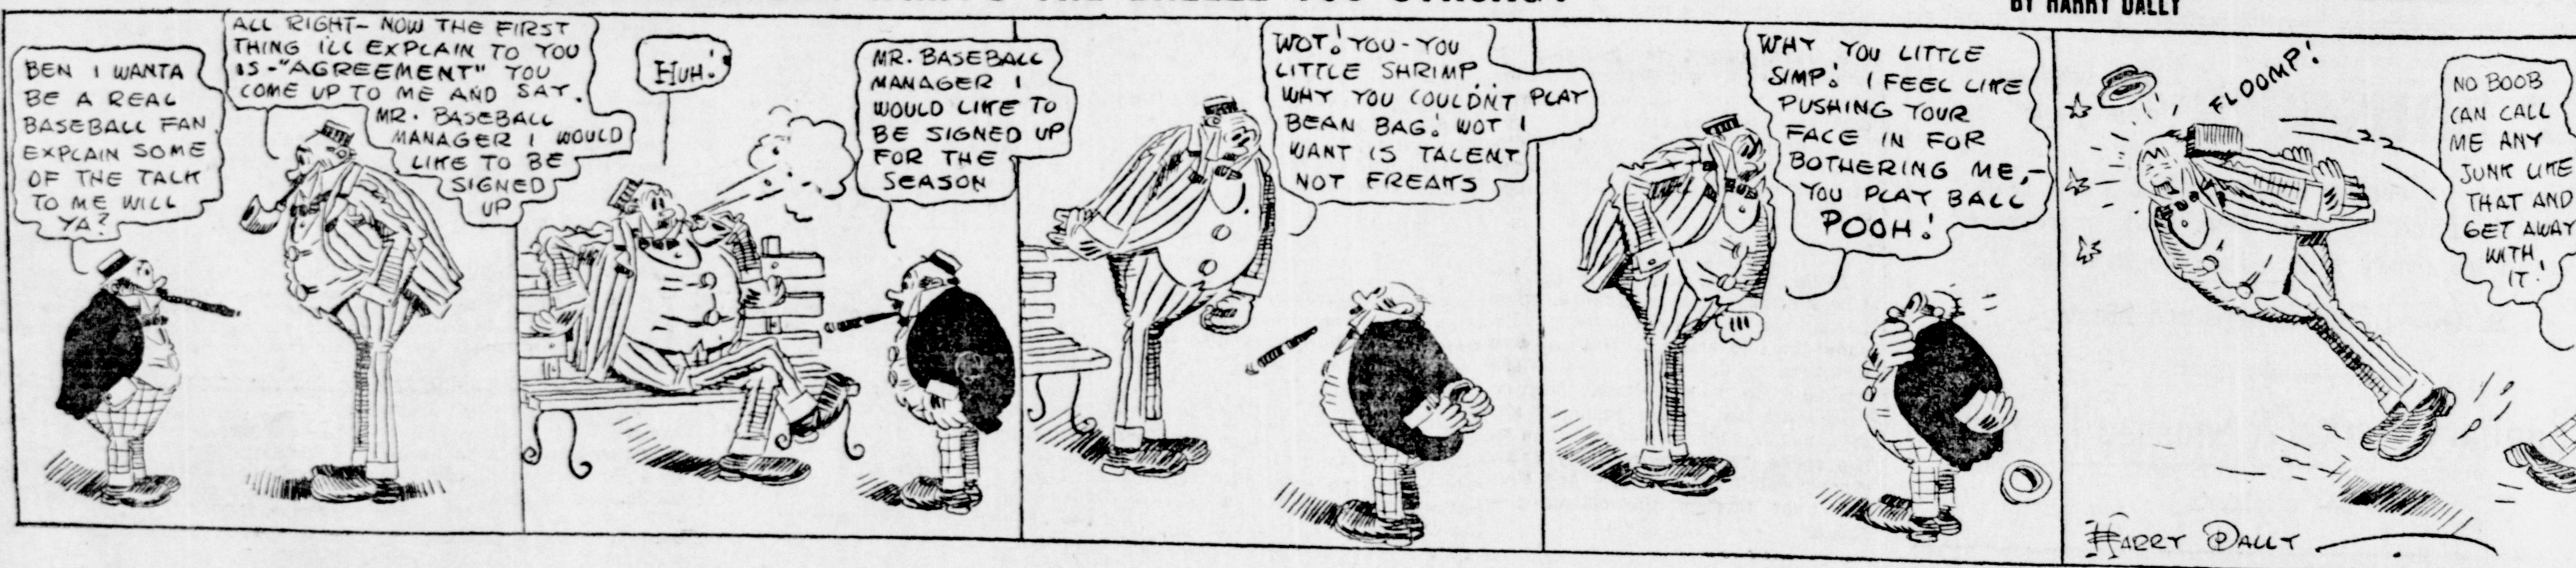

Ed Keeton and Blaine Bjork of Superior, Wis., arrived in La Crosse yesterday from that city after a pleasant canoe trip of eleven days' duration. The young men are visiting with Albert Kirschner here. After traveling for eleven days, the Superior men arrived in La Crosse yesterday without having encountered any trouble whatever. They started in on their journey at the head of the St. Croix river and they came down the Mississippi river, beginning at Prescott. They passed several bad rapids on the upper St. Croix successfully and passed many log jams without trouble. They say the trip was a most enjoyable one.

WANT FRENCH AUTO DRIVER AT ELGIN

CHICAGO, July 26.—Efforts were being made today to induce George Boillot, winner of the recent French Grand Prix, to drive a car in the Elgin road races of August 30 and 31. E. C. Patterson, a Chicago motorist, commenced cable negotiations with the driver and the maker of the Peugeot car in which Boillot won the Grand Prix in an effort to bring them here for the Kane county classic.

Cost of Ocean Cables.
The average cost of ocean tele-graph cables is about $2,000 a mile.

Among recent patents which attract attention by reason of their novelty are one for making sausages without casings (a searing process) and one for an illuminated flat iron. The latter contrivance is described as containing incandescent light bulbs which serve at the same time to heat the iron and to illuminate the work which is being ironed.

Some people manage to see their duty in time to dodge it. He who hesitates is possessed.

Quite Too Much for Used Words.
The value of advertising was pointed out to a man with a budding business, and he agreed to give a writer $50 for a full page. The copy was submitted and the merchant looked it over coldly. "Fifty dollars is too much," he commented. "You've used a lot of words I've seen before."

DAVIES SURE OF WILSON SUPPORT

Secretary of National Democratic Committee Expects Forty Electors from Northwest

MADISON, Wis., July 26.—Joseph E. Davies, secretary of the democratic national committee, who is at his home here today, said that North and South Dakota, Kansas, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Minnesota will furnish at least 40 of the 114 electoral votes needed to elect Woodrow Wilson president.

"Before the Baltimore convention," he said "I made the statement that if Governor Wilson were nominated he would receive forty of the 114 electoral votes, in addition to those furnished by the south, from states northwest of the Mississippi valley to elect him president. I see no reason to change my opinion, when in fact conditions have so changed as to strengthen my confidence in this result. Under the new apportionment, as I recall it, it will require about 114 electoral votes in addition to those to come from the democratic states of the south. The states I have named will furnish forty of these votes."

Others in touch with the Wilson campaign here claim that the Wilson candidacy has checked the third party movement in the northwest, and quote from letters received from Montana and Nebraska, written by avowed republicans, it is declared, claiming it is impossible to stem the Wilson sentiment.

Secretary Davies said the campaign is being rapidly organized, that bureaus and administrative heads will be selected in a few days. The New York headquarters will be opened first, and as soon thereafter as possible offices will be established at Chicago. Mr. Davies' work as secretary will be done from the New York headquarters, whence he will return tomorrow.

THEY ARE PASSING AWAY

Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Far East carries a band of buffaloes which are used during the exhibition for demonstrating of the way in which hunters on the plains in the old days used to ride into herds of their kin, slaughtering right and left. Show life agrees with the beasts. They are always plump, good natured and in good condition, evidently content with their lot. The Wild West and Far East will be here soon and the Indian war dances, bucking bronchos, cavalry and infantry drills, the immense battle scenes and a score of other popular features will be presented with fidelity to historic fact.

SOME WILD HORSES

Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Far East has a choice bunch of selected broncho demons, too vicious to be worth breaking, and two of them have reputations as "killers." At every performance in the arena cowboys rope, saddle and ride these equine devils, an animated proceeding in which nobody can fail to take excited interest. The Wild West will be here soon, and the military drills, the battle scenes, the bucking horses, fearless riders, Indian war dances, and all the other well-known features will surely be presented.

BADING WELCOMES GRAYS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 26.—Leading citizens, headed by Governor Mc Govern, and Mayor Bading yesterday formed a reception and entertainment committee for the Cleveland Grays, when over fifty members of that famous military organization headed by Commanding Captain F. M. Hawley, arrived here.

A sightseeing tour about the city in automobiles and a reception and luncheon as guests of Col. Gustav Pabst at Whitefish Bay yesterday afternoon was part of the entertainment program.

STATE ERECTS BUILDING

MADISON, Wis., July 26.—Over a half million dollars' worth of buildings are now in process of erection at the twelve state institutions under the direction of the state board of control. All these buildings and improvements were authorized by the 1911 legislature. That body was perhaps the most liberal of any in the decade in providing room and facilities for caring for the dependent portion of the population.

DANCE ABOUT GRAVE.

ROME, July 26.—Nicola Capelli of Pitigliano left directions in his will that a quart of wine should be poured over his coffin, and that two cases should be distributed among those who attended his funeral. He also requested that his friends should dance around the grave. They did.

GERMAN BIRTHRATE FALLS

BERLIN, July 26.—The government is greatly concerned over the rapidly falling birthrate in Germany, and the ministry of interior has circulated various authorities urging to make a thorough investigation. The socialists attribute the decline to taxes.

HAS AN ALIBI

HEALTH METHODS SHOW AT CAPITAL

Exposition and Meeting of World's Health Guardians to Be Held in September

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 26.—An exhibit is being gathered by the Wisconsin committee of the International Congress on Hygiene and Oeomography, to be sent to Washington for the meeting in September.

On account of the fact that practically every civilized nation of the earth is to be represented, and that practically every state will make a display, all possible efforts are being put forth to insure Wisconsin's holding its own.

"This state has become famous throughout the nation for its advanced legislation in many fields," said Dr. Harper, secretary of the state board of health and chairman of the Wisconsin committee, in a personal interview, "and we must see to it that in a matter of so much vital interest to the welfare of every man, woman and child as is public health, we are not found lagging behind. No people in America, I am sure, have taken a more intelligent interest in the control of contagious disease than those of Wisconsin, and it is a matter of pride, if nothing else, that we take the position in this great congress to which our enlightenment entitles us."

A meeting of the Wisconsin committee will be held this week to consider ways and means of meeting expense necessary to gather and ship the exhibit and provide for unavoidable clerical work. Advice from Washington state that this is to be the most important gathering ever held in this or any other country for the study of preventable disease, and the assurance is given that thousands of lives will be saved by the knowledge that will be gained.

Woman is an idol that man worships as long as she can keep her place on the pedestal.

SAYS WIFE SHOT HIM IN HER ARMS

LARAMIE, Wyo., July 26.—That his wife shot him while she had her arms about him, hugging him, was the dying statement of William M. Brown, a Union Pacific fireman, who is dead in a local hospital, today. Mrs. Brown, under arrest, declares she slew him because he was attacking her with a butcher knife.

DISPUTE OVER PISTOL

LONDON, July 26.—An American collector has offered $10,000 for Dick Turpin's pistol, recently discovered during the dismantling of the historic Globe Room of the Reindeer Inn at Banbury. At present the ownership of the pistol is in dispute as between the owner of the building, the finder, and the purchasers of the ceiling where it has been concealed.

JAP EMPLOYERS TO DIVIDE UP PROFITS

TOKIO, July 26.—Alarmed at the growth of labor unrest throughout Japan, the mikado's advisors are urging the speedy passage by the diet of an amendment to the factory law designed, as it is expressed here, to prevent future "outbreaks of dangerous thought." By the amendment's provisions, large manufacturers are required to set aside a percentage of their profits for their employees in addition to their regular wages. The employees will receive this money, however, only upon completion of specified terms of service. The government has had much trouble with workmen of late and there can be no question that Japan is on the eve of an important labor uprising.

But a bird in the hand fails to catch the early worm.
